3 Legged Handicap—440 yds.

(1)—Bols and W. T. Emmett

(2)—Heneker and Joly

(3)—McFarlane and Macrae

This was, perhaps, the most amusing race of the day. The entries were plentiful, and the two smallest boys in the School won. It is only fair to them to say that they would have had the same good fortune had their start been very much less than in fact it was.

NOTE:—Bols—General Sir Louis Bols, Allenby's Chief of Staff. Later Governor of Bermuda.

Heneker—General W. C. G. Heneker, A.D.C. to King Edward.

Joly—General Gustave Joly de Lotbiniere, R. E.

A hard thing to explain.

A feeling of impotence – that comes,
Not to everyone – but to a few,
God's chosen – or so we are told.
Although we very seldom regard ourselves
As such – and yet –

Perhaps they are right.

Perhaps they know more of things
Near to us – than we ourselves.

A hard thing to explain –

Yet I will try – although I realize now
That I will do no justice to our thoughts.

At first excitement reigns supreme –
Chills on the spine and sweat upon the brow –
A touch, perhaps, of nervousness,
As we alone – for the first time
Wing our way through silver skies.

And as our time grows – and grows –
With confidence come sensations sweet.
(Familiar words) as care is gone –
Not altogether – but yet enough that we can fly
And feel that surge of sweet delight
That suddenly o'ertakes one – darting
Through clouds of grey and grey – then –
Break to greener fields –
A woolly mass of soft-like billows – lit by streaks
Of golden light – that casts its gleam –
And multi-coloured shadows
Play at hide and seek –

Then through the clouds one sees

The ground – a school – a game –

A railway station – people – cars – boats and trains.

All hidden from each other – in gentle darkness.

Covered by a blanket of a cloud – Which hides the wanton world
From the heat and gladness of the sun. And yet above it all –

A sight so beautiful – that words cannot describe –

It would indeed be sacrilege –

A sight reserved for those who soar – above

The world – and nearer God –

'Tis then we thank and glory –

That we are there – to witness such a sight –

'Tis then we wish that those below

Were there – to drink with us the art of God –

The beauty of His Hand.

MAJ. LINDSAY FOSS DIES AT GIBRALTAR

From the Montreal Gazette—

Dr. A. F. Foss, of 4135 Dorchester Street West, Montreal, received word of the death on November 23, of his son, Major Lindsay Foss, who was serving at Gibraltar with the 172nd Tunnelling Company, Royal Engineers, England.

Major Foss was born at Lennoxville, Que., 45 years ago, and was the son of Dr. Foss and the late Mrs. E. M. Eberts. He attended Bishop's College School in Lennoxville, and later received his degree in Mining Engineering from McGill University. He was a veteran of the last war, having served with the McGill Siege Battery. A great many Montreal boys composed this battery and Group Captain Roy Foss, of the R.C.A.F., a cousin of Major Lindsay, was a member of the battery.

Previous to enlisting in this war, Major Foss was employed by Timmins and other mining companies, as mining engineer, in Northern Ontario. He also travelled extensively in Mexico, Brazil, Africa and other countries, for the Union Mining Corporation, Limited.

Major Foss and his wife, the former Kathleen Carlisle, went to London, England, about 5 years before the outbreak of this war. While there he was employed by the Union Mining Corporation, Limited.

Shortly before war was declared, Major Foss enlisted with the Royal Engineers, England. He was in action at Dunkerque and was mentioned in dispatches from there, and for the past several months had been stationed at Gibraltar, where he was C.O. of his company.

Dr. Foss, the father of Major Foss, is also a veteran of the last war. He was attached to the Royal Montreal Regiment and served in various hospitals in France and England. Major Foss's young brother, Richard, is now training as a pilot in the R.C.A.F.

Major Foss is survived by his wife, who lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carlisle, at Victoria, B.C.

TO

To think that you, whose laughter shook the halls,
And earned the wrath of masters and their glares,
To think that you are lying with the palls
Of earth upon you—it seems strange that flares

And lights and lamps and stars have not blown out.
That laugh that sent your friends to bed at night
And woke them in the morning with a shout
Has died within your heart and taken flight.

But in the cypresses on Moulton Hill,
And on the summer greening cricket field,
And in the dorms at night when boys are still,

Beneath the gilt-enwrought Crusader's Shield,
Which shields our gallant memories of our dead,
Your laugh still rings although your soul has fled.

FOR P. G. H.

Do you remember, Pete, the red brick halls,
Where happy years of youth were raced away,
Where, under that old School's green-ivied walls,
You spent so many a glorious, distant day?

Do you remember football? You were fond
Of sport before the ravage of the Hun.
Do you remember hockey on the pond
Before the rink was frozen? All that fun?

If you do not remember, Bishop's will,
Nor can it e'er forget that gallant face,
Of one who rules it through his mem'ry still,
And gave his life that it might have a space

Of peace, when June may be as 'twas before,
And boys forget again the curse of war.

D.S.N. (VA)

We express our gratitude to Wing-Comdr. H. de M. Molson, A.D.C., who has honoured us with a Foreword. We tried to extract from him an account of his personal experiences—when he was wounded and shot down in 1940, during the London blitz—but were unsuccessful. And so we take the following excerpt from "The Gazette":

Wing-Comdr. Molson was a member of No. 1 Fighter Squadron during the London blitz. During a furious battle he was shot down by a Messerschmidt 109 while engaged with another and was forced to bail out 23,000 feet over London. He dropped 12,000 feet with an unopened parachute through a maze of German planes, eventually making a good landing despite a leg wound.

It is with very deep regret that we record the following casualties: Andy Breakey, Phil Davis, Peter Holt, Bob Starke, Bob Duncan, and Eric McCuaig.

Many pleasant thoughts of them will ever linger in our hearts. "A bright and dear remembrance" as one of our own School poets has said.

We also regret having to record the death of Major L. J. Foss (1906-'14) who died while serving in Gibraltar, and of Sqdn. Ldr. H. de Domville, who died while he was a prisoner of war in a Japanese camp in Java. We publish on other pages fuller reports of these casualties and as many photographs as we could procure.

The School extends to the members of their families its profound sympathy and with them takes a solemn pride in their gift of their lives for others.

Our Pages of Honour roll is constantly getting longer since 1939 and we are very grateful to all those who give us information for there are many names still lacking, some we have even heard of since the Roll went to press. Our supply of photographs is exhausted too.

At the end of a strenuous and successful first term we present our congratulations to the Prefects, to the Football team and its Captain on a most successful season in every sense of the word; to the Cadet Corps on again winning the Strathcona Cup for Military Efficiency for the eighth consecutive year, and to the 22 boys who passed the Senior and Junior McGill Matriculation, especially to the First Class, and still more especially to those who passed, contrary to our expectations.

Stop Press

Dec. 16—

Thanks Old Boys for the Christmas card. Yes, Churchill-Smith, we certainly will send you a Magazine. Glad to hear that you used your French at Dakar, Casablanca and Algiers. Happy Landings for the New Year.

(From B. C. S. '24)

OUR TRUMPETER

At the edge of the world, as on the threshold of a door
Stand the thirteen stalwart members of the Sixth of '24.
Six months in the future they'll be scattered and widespread
Along the thorny path of life, trying to earn their daily bread.

There's none but feels affection, as deep as one can measure,
For the school where years have passed with their study and their leisure.
To the form is due much credit for its part in every sport,
For we really are an all round form, having boys of every sort.

There are five who wear the jersey—who football represent,
And three more bear the coat-of-arms, upon hockey honour bent;
There are others of the number who'll do nobly in exams,
And a nigger who comes from Africa who'd like to live on yams.

No one can rightly tell what success we'll make of life,
But each and every one hopes that it will not end in strife.
No doubt we'll have our failures; that, partly, one expects,
But we hope success with brighter beam will counteract defects.

H.M.

Chapel Notes

During the term there has been little to report in the Chapel. This does not mean that the Chapel has been inactive but merely that religious observance follows a regular pattern which provides few novelties for the chronicler. There has been a church parade at St. George's, Lennoxville, at which the Cadet Corps was present in uniform, and on one or two Sundays bad weather has prevented the boys from going to the Chapel. On such occasions the service is held in the Assembly Hall. In these days a subject of importance is the relation which exists between the teachings of Christianity and the world that is to come out of the war. In the Chapel addresses on Sundays an attempt has been made to explain this relation and to show how the Christian individual may contribute to a society determined both to preserve the achievements of the past and to correct its mistakes.

The Montreal Daily Star, Tuesday, June 29, 1943

GALLANT YOUTH REMEMBERED

SERVICE FOR F/O P. G. HOLT HELD IN ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH
Family and many prominent citizens unite in tribute to late officer.

Many friends of Flying Officer Peter Gratton Holt, son of Major W. R. G. Holt, M.B.E., and Mrs. Holt, of Redpath Crescent, and grandson of the late Sir Herbert Holt attended the memorial service held yesterday afternoon in St. George's Church for the young aviator who was killed in action overseas on the eve of his 20th birthday on May 30.

While the simple Anglican service ritual was followed, there were two unusual features to the service. On the order of the service appeared one verse of a poem that was written by Peter Holt the year he graduated from Bishop's College School, while at the conclusion of the service the School hymn was sung.

WROTE POEM OF HOPE

Flying Officer Holt was killed while on operations on a Sunday night, and the little poem which first appeared in the School magazine, was entitled "Sunday" with "Tomorrow" in parenthesis. It read:

Sunday—the time will come
When voices once again
Will sing their songs—
The sun will pierce the smoke and say:
"Bells ring out once more! The day
Has come. Let Freedom reign."

Ven. A. P. Gower-Rees, Archdeacon of Montreal and rector of St. George's, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. H. McGreer, principal and vice-chancellor of Bishop's University, Lennoxville, who read the lesson from St. John 14, verses 1-14. The service opened with the singing of the hymn "Unto the Hills", followed by the sentences: "I am the Resurrection and the Life; God is my hope and strength, a very present help in trouble." The 23rd Psalm was sung and after the lesson, Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar" was sung by the Boys' Choir of the church. Special prayers were said by the Archdeacon, after which the Bishop's College School hymn "Young Souls" was sung, which seemed particularly appropriate to the gallant young flying officer.

The first verse was:

Young souls, so strong the race to run
And win, each height sublime
Unweary still would ye march on
And still exulting climb?

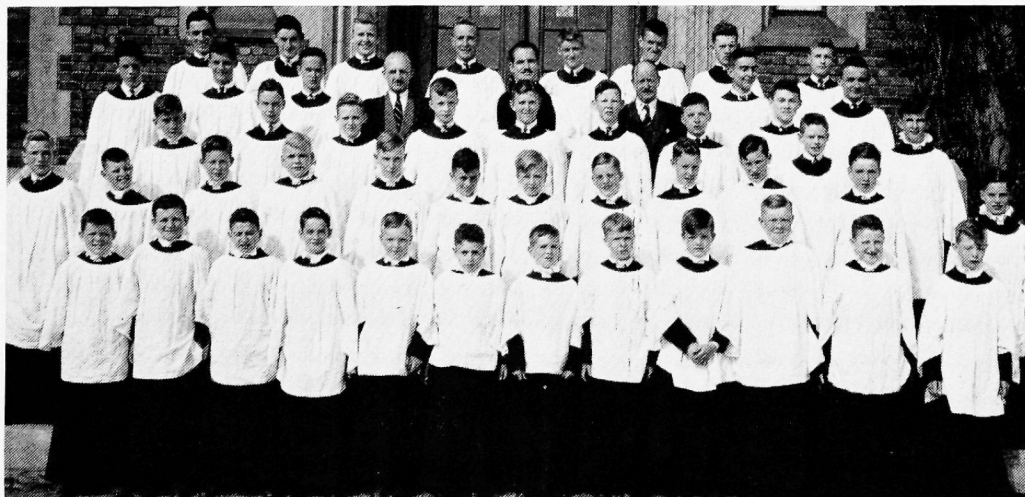

And the last:

Rejoice: your portion shall be this
All recompense above
Eternal youth, eternal bliss
And everlasting Love.

CLOSE RELATIVES ATTEND

With Major Holt overseas and Mrs. W. R. G. Holt unable to attend the service, the family was represented by Mr. and Mrs. F. Stewart Molson, uncle and aunt of the young officer, and Miss Elizabeth Ann Holt, cousin and granddaughter of the late Sir Herbert Holt, and Alan Jeffrey, uncle.

Miss Jane Holt, the late flyer's sister, is serving at an Eastern Canadian port in the Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service. Other chief mourners were Gordon Shirres, Miss J. Skeed, Miss H. Elliott, and the staff of Major and Mrs. Holt's residence, headed by R. Manley, butler, and Miss McKinnon, housekeeper, both of whom have been with the family for over 20 years.

THE CHOIR

SECOND FRONT

In Italy the battle rages—the second front's begun,
And all the Allied armies have been welded into one,
As Americans, Canadians and Britons side by side,
Turn upon the common foe and swamp him with their tide.

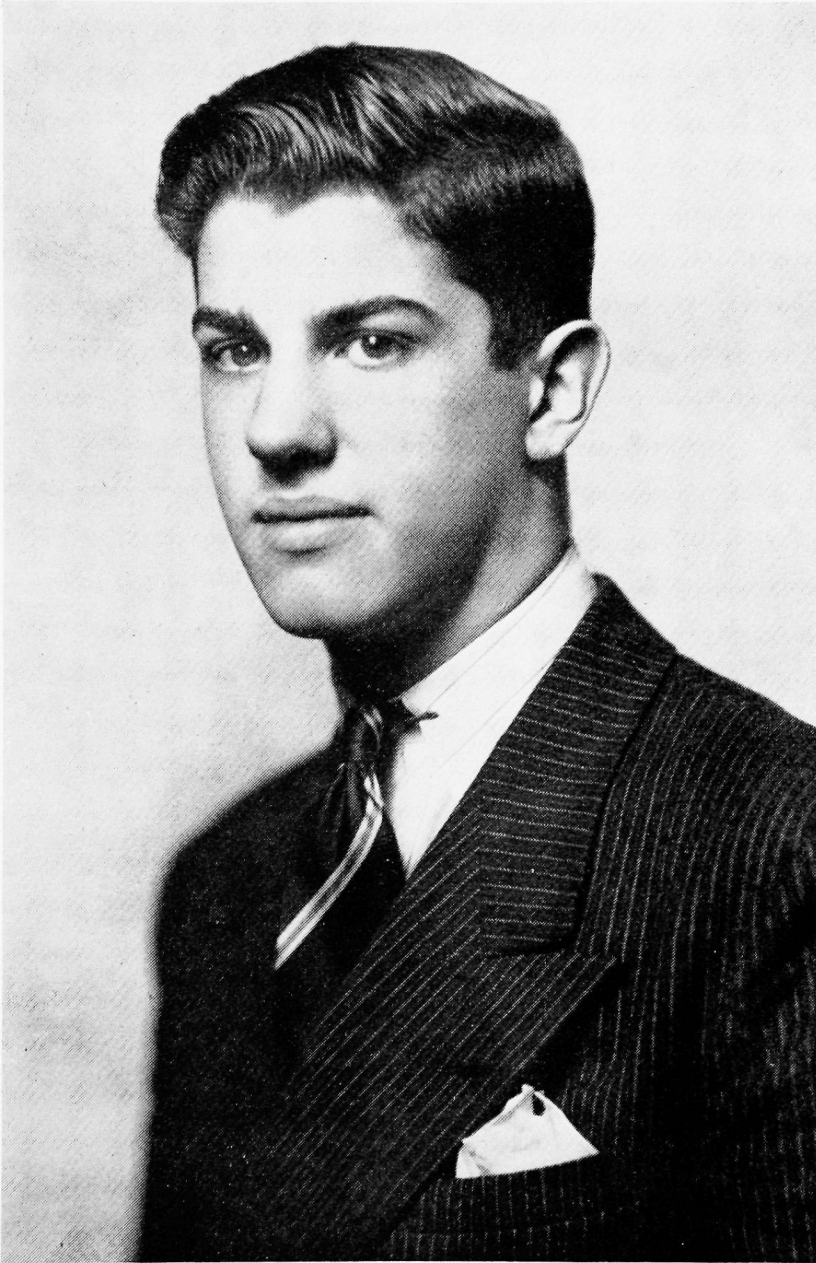

The men and guns roll onward, freeing thousands as they go,
While supplies keep moving forward in a never-ending flow.
And no mountains and no rivers, nor the strength of Nature's might,
Can hold back the cheering army as they charge into the fight.

Upon the sea in battleships the mighty cannon roar,
As they boom the bloody challenge of the thirsty God of War;
And the whining shells shriek overhead as, ploughing on their way,
They tear above the battle-line and crash amongst their prey.

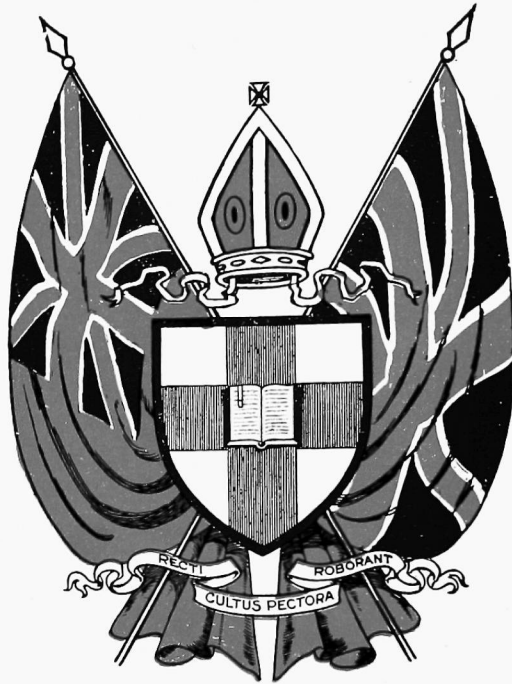

The droning of the bombers, as they streak across the sky,
Rends the quiet night asunder with the thunder of their cry,
And the fighters that escort them lead them safely to their goal,
Where they'll drop their deadly cargo, and extract their deathly toll.

When you see in meagre head-lines that "All is going well",
Just imagine all the drama that those four small words could tell,
And remember how our soldier-boys are fighting over there,
And be proud that our great country is contributing her share.

CADET NOTES

This year the Corps has a strength of 63 cadets and 50 recruits. On September 24 the Corps fell in for the first time, and the officers appointed were:

CADET MAJOR, J. W. Hooper.
 CADET LIEUTENANT, H. G. Hallward.
 CADET LIEUTENANT, J. W. Price
 CADET LIEUTENANT, T. E. Hodgson
 CADET SERGEANT-MAJOR, P. R. Satterthwaite.
 CADET BAND-SERGEANT, J. H. Jarrett.
 CADET Q.M.S., D. A. Phelps.

The Strathcona Cup for military efficiency in M.D. No. 4 was won by the Corps for the eighth consecutive year. On Friday October the 18th, the Corps, one hundred strong, took part in the Victory Loan in Sherbrooke. On the following Sunday a parade was held in Lennoxville to St. George's Church.

Wednesday, October 25th, the Associated Screen News of Canada took a film of the Corps as it fell in and sized.

On November the 11th, the Corps moved off at 2 o'clock to take part in the parade and take up a position at the Lennoxville Cenotaph, for the annual Memorial Day Services. Cadet S. M. Satterthwaite read the roll of honour of the B.C.S. Old Boys who fell in the World War I, and Sgt. Stoker laid the wreath. Route marches have played a prominent part in the Cadet Corps' activity. This year we were fortunate in obtaining 120 new Cooley rifles.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

Last year was the one hundred and sixth year in the history of the School. What seems to me however, to be much more significant is that it was also the fourth year that the School has continued to operate during the present world war. Through many peacetime years the School has been educating boys for peacetime living, aiming at the production of a general culture, (or, as has been said, at preparation for the universities, which is not supposed to be an obstacle to general culture). This, it was hoped was an all round education in the true sense of the word, a teaching of general ethics as well as of particular knowledge, and it was designed to equip the boy with a stability of character and a mental alertness which would stand him in good stead in whatever way of life he should find himself. As it has turned out, that way of life for many of our boys has proved to be the way of the soldier, the sailor, or the airman, on active duty in war. How has the education imparted at this School stood up against this supreme test? I think that the answer to that question may be read between the lines of the list hanging in the centre hall, a list of 'Old Boys' on Active Service, which contains 361 names, of whom 19 have already been killed in action, 2 are missing, and 11 are reported as prisoners of war. In every branch of the service, and in almost every rank, from the highest to the lowest, B.C.S. boys are acquitting themselves nobly, and we have ample evidence from many of them that their years at this School are today having a very important bearing on their lives.

The old peacetime B.C.S. turned out many who today hold positions of the highest responsibility in the Navy, the Army, and the Air Force. The new wartime B.C.S. is turning out ordinary seamen, gunners, privates, and AC/2's, most of whom are advancing rapidly to positions of authority. But does this new wartime B.C.S. differ very much from the old? I think not. We have not found it necessary to change either the substance or the method of our teaching in order to produce a class of boys who are bound by their consciences to follow where the path of duty leads them. We are not today specializing in the training of soldiers. It is true that last year our Cadet Corps won the Strathcona Cup for Military Efficiency in M.D. 4; but this is nothing new; so it has done now for the last eight consecutive years.

Last September we welcomed four new masters to the staff, the Rev. Claude Sauerbrei, Mr. H. Christie, Mr. W. F. Lowndes, and Mr. W. S. McMann. We were then fortunate in being able to keep the staff intact for the whole year. At the end of the year however, we learned with regret that we were to lose Dr. Roebuck, Mr. H. Christie, and Mr. A. Glauser, all of whom have accepted university positions. To take their places this year, Mr. E. R. Payzant has joined the staff at the Prep. School and Mr. G. W. Buchanan and Mr. Geo. Christison the Upper. I am very grateful to Dr. McGreer, the Principal of Bishop's University and a member of the Board of Directors of this School, for his assistance in finding a master to teach senior chemistry. The problem was solved by the part time engagement of Dr. A. N. Langford of the University staff. To those members of the staff who are still with us, I wish to express my sincere thanks for their loyalty and hard work in the face of mounting difficulties, and to intimate to them, if I may, the added responsibilities, and privilege, which this war has placed on their shoulders. I am not sure that education, and education alone, is the panacea for this world's ills. I think that Brougham, when he said "The schoolmaster is abroad, and I trust him, armed with his primer, against the soldier in full military array", was perhaps overestimating the capabilities of the schoolmaster, but nevertheless, the teachers of today have an enormously important task to perform. They will be at least partly responsible if another such holocaust as this descends upon the world in the next few decades, and teachers in schools of this type have added responsibilities, as I believe that the private boarding school, with its pupils twenty-four hours a day under its control, is, in spite of the many attacks upon it as an undemocratic anachronism, the institution best equipped in the world to instill into the youth of the country, the true principles of education.

Helping to win the war has not been confined entirely to the 'Old Boys'. Last year the boys of the School did their fair share, small as it may seem, as they have done each year since the war started. The usual work as waiters, groundsmen, and general help in emergencies, was performed cheerfully, and in addition last year they cut and sawed about fifteen cords of wood. They collected amongst themselves, about $120 for the Red Cross, and bought $400 worth of war saving stamps.

To turn to the world of sports, and other so called extra-curricular activities, the first football team, the bantam hockey team, the first cricket team, the first ski team and the track team, all had unbeaten records throughout the season. The football team, after a very hard match with L.C.C., which they just managed to win by the score of one to nothing, won the Shirley Russel Cup; the bantam hockey team won the E. T. Divisional Championship of the Q.A.H.A.; the cricket team won the inter-school championship between L.C.C., Ashbury, and ourselves; the ski team won the senior section of the E. T. Interscholastic Ski Meet and the meet against L.C.C.; and the track team won the E. T. Interscholastic Track Meet. The first hockey team lost the Ashbury Old Boys' Cup to L.C.C.

The choir, under the direction of Mr. Page, performed throughout the year with its usual degree of excellence, and during the Easter weekend sang parts of Handel's Messiah in St. Mark's Chapel.

Many of the Saturday night clubs were forced to operate with considerably reduced numbers owing to the interference caused by that schoolboys' bete noire, the written examination, as those whose work was not up to the necessary standard were required to write two papers on Saturday evenings. The outstanding achievement of any of the clubs was probably the performance during the Lent Term of Ian Hay's "Housemaster", by the Players' Club, under the able direction of Messrs. G. H. Moffatt and R. L. Evans. The School theatre was filled almost to capacity and the proceeds were given to the Red Cross. One new club, the Printing Club, was inaugurated. It has the use of two hand presses kindly presented to the School some time ago by the Porteous family.

The School is indebted to Senator the Hon. A. Knatchbull-Hugessen for the presentation of a prize to be awarded annually, and to be known as 'The Kenneth Hugessen Poetry Prize', in memory of his son who was a student at this School from 1936 to 1941, and who showed outstanding ability as a poet. This prize will be presented for the first time at the prizegiving next year, for poetry submitted this year.

Twenty-two boys wrote the complete McGill Junior Matriculation in June. Of these, one passed with first class honours, six with second class honours, and ten with third class honours. Five boys wrote the Senior Matriculation and two of them received certificates. It is interesting to note that of these five one is now in the R.A.F., one in the R.C.N.V.R., and one in the R.C.A., and two are taking the army course at McGill and Queens respectively. Of those who wrote the Junior Matric, six have returned to School to take the senior, three have returned to England, two are at the Royal Canadian Naval College, six are already in one or other of the armed forces, and the remaining few are putting in time, either at the university or at work until they can join one of these forces.

Chapman's

The first lengthy school term has come to a successful close. First of all, on behalf of the House members, we wish to thank Mr. Moffat for the kindness he has shown in giving us cocoa and biscuits every Sunday night.

R. W. Stevenson is the House Prefect this year, and R. H. Taylor the Head Boy on the lower flat. A. Dobell and D. Phelps were appointed Acting Head Boys for the upper flat at the beginning of the term, and have since then been promoted to Head Boys.

The Choir Boys in the House are: R. W. Stevenson, R. H. Taylor, D. Phelps, M. S. Wallace, J. Sewell, J. Boyd, H. Evans and A. Black. One of the boys, whom we note is not in the Choir, insists that Sinatra has nothing on his singing, and tries to prove his statement by waking us up in the morning with his crooning. However we wish to add, because of both popular opinion and physical violence, he has given up this practice.

Steve was first team's snap this year; Mike Wallace was quarter; Tony Dobell halfback, and Charlie Neill a middle. They all played good steady games throughout the season. J. Sewell A. Levitt, and D. Foss all made second team.

The boys have set a record for being punctual at breakfast, showing up last year's bunch who prided themselves on never being on time. The only casualties have been because of a lazy waker-upper (we won't mention any names), and the occasional slow runner. We often wonder how many track records have been broken by boys who start out from the House at minute bell, and reach the School in time for breakfast.

R.W.S. & T.R.H.

Williams'

Stern I, Moffat I, Best and Sifton, with Mackay as Head Boy and Satterthwaite as Prefect are the select few occupying the hallowed rooms of Williams' House this year.

Stern and Moffat are respectively the Free French and American 'good-will ambassadors' to B.C.S. In addition to their 'Embassy duties' they found time to show their prowess on the gridiron. Best, a member of Second Team Football, continues to amaze the populace with his human fly tactics. Of late he seems to have been more interested in the mails than before. What could it be, Don? Mackay, our Haligonion, (for the benefit of the ignoramuses, he lives in Halifax) Head Boy, earned his First Team Football colours in spite of an unfortunate injury in the L.C.C. game which put him in the infirmary for the balance of the season. Satterthwaite and Sifton are to be seen breaking all speed records from the 'House' to the School every morning at minute bell. It is reported that they are getting into condition for track events in the Spring Term, but one wonders how good Sifton's wind is—or is that familiar smell on his breath tooth-paste?

The House thanks Mr. and Mrs. Patriquin for the Sunday evening cocoa and biscuits and wishes them and their family a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

THOUGHTS ON SCHOOL

In days to come—far from these halls,
These lofty rooms, these sacred walls,
Sweet memory will flow back clear
And once more bring these school-days near.

The joy of school you learn too late,
It's fun you ne'er appreciate.
'Tis when you'll leave, ne'er to return,
Your heart with gratitude will burn.

For work you found so hard to do,
The books that you went ploughing through—,
These lessons learned will serve you well,
So heed the things your best friends tell.

And team-work, learned on foot-ball fields,
The sportsmanship that cricket yields—,
They all will have a part to play,
When you will face the world some day.

And then you'll look back with a sigh,
At those short years, which flitted by,
And wish you had that time again,
Away from life's long toil and pain.

INTRODUCING SIX ARTS.

O, the fame of Six Arts may be heard from afar,
 Wherever they gather, wherever they are,
 And in work and in play there is none can compare,
 For the brains and the sportsmanship show everywhere.
 So when praising and shouting and cheering all starts,
 You can count on it being for one of Six Arts.

Our outstanding member, who reigns in the School,
 Is Bill, the Head Prefect, whom no one can fool.
 He says K's the best letter, we think he's quite right,
 But now, here comes Steve, so let's talk of his might:
 Though New Boys all tremble on hearing his name,
 He's a good-natured fellow, deserving his fame.

Our Cadet Corps Commander is leaving this year,
 It's our dapper John Hooper—you'll know when he's near.
 There's also John Moffatt, whose labour we know
 Will raise the form average. And trying to grow
 Is our powerful Smitty, who one day will greet
 The astonishing height of five or six feet.

It's cold, and our P. D. is longing for home,
 The cute Nassau gals and the warmth of the foam.
 Now Bo's got a girl who resides nearer here,
 And whose letters each mail-time are full of good cheer.
 But Gerard, who's aiming at much older game,
 Thinks small girls of sixteen are really too tame.

You've heard of Doc Struthers a Head Boy renowned,
 The quiet of his dorm himself doth astound,
 And in the library directly beneath,
 In charge there's Don Loggie, who's gritting his teeth
 'Cos Sifton has threatened to come there no more
 'Cos the book he was reading was only a bore.

The head of the Magazine, Janner by name,
 Has combined with Bob Taylor, of Chapman's House fame,
 To write these few lines, in an effort to please,
 And hope the result will suffice to appease.
 So the first in all sports, and the first in all hearts,
 They are sure you will find all the men of Six Arts.

Sixth Science Form Notes

This is a story, a tale without end,
 About the boys this class shall send
 Into the world, to grow and fight
 The darkness of the future, and turn it to light!
 They shall be engineers, statesmen and such—
 But it isn't the name that counts so much.
 They shall be good men, loyal and true,
 To their King and Country, God—and You!
 These are the boys of the Sixth Science Form
 Who'll go into the world, all evil to storm.

Tony Dobell, and Jamie Mackay
 Both of them athletes, and each a swell guy!
 Tony is brainy, and the Blodge is too,
 Probably 'cause they're cousins, if it's anything to you.

Flip and Ken are always together.
 They behave as though they were joined by a tether.

Along with these two, are the Dons, Suth and Best,
 In respect to their kidding, they won't take a rest.

Bisson and Paull are neutrals new;
 Bisson's a brain, and Paull thinks he's one, too.
 The latter writes verses and claims he's a poet,
 But all of us doubt it, and we certainly show it!

Reid is a whiz, when the topic is "motors".
 Brock's deep in History, and worries 'bout voters.

Alex and Max are two of a kind,
 Both swell fellows, and musically inclined.

Tyler and Phelps are lads we would like to see
 Win the Kandahar Races; they could do it on one ski.

Mick and Tom have looks beguiling,
 Tom never laughs, and Mick's always smiling.

Last but not least in our three ring display,
 Peter and Desmond end the array;
 Pete is a Prefect, Des a Head Boy,
 And the job they're doing fills us with joy.

Thus do we end this brief resumé,
 Maybe in news-columns some coming day
 Will be found articles all about these chaps.
 In the world of tomorrow, they'll fill all the gaps

Five Arts Form Notes

If you visit all our graves
In some far distant day,
The epitaphs that you will see,
Will likely go this way:—

BLACK—

The chemistry lab was once his pal,
'Til something happened which finished off Al.

BRONFMAN—

Here lies the Mole, under this tomb,
Hit by Smitty for not sweeping the room.

CALDER—

Doc lies dead right under here,
The angels' harps he still can't hear.

GAULT—

You'll never again see Leslie's face,
He drew five kings and then an ace.

HICKEY—

Here lies Ronald, as is said,
Through natural causes—died in bed.

JOHNSON—

Here lies Johnny, now he's dead,
This mound you see was once his head.

MARTIN—

Here lies Derrick, who one day
Lost in flipping and couldn't pay.

RADCLIFFE—

Now Brinsley's gone, a harp he'll carry.
He expired that night in the infirmary.

SETLAKWE—

His cards at poker were marked with signs,
So now he lies in Thetford Mines.

WALLACE—

Here lies Mike, he was number seven,
He fumbled the ball, now he's in heaven.

Fifth Science Form Notes

Fifth Science Form at B. C. S.
Is really quite the class,
They flourish on the playing field,
Exams they always pass.

Chuck Neill's our lad of football fame,
And also Jimmy Sewell,
Doug Foss our Aero-president,
And Mitch who loves the School.

Phillipe Stern who's hot at bridge,
And Will of Long eye land,
Levitt and Dickins, classroom swots,
They represent the band.

Cochrane, Cox and Biard,
Are the New Boys of the class,
They're good at work and play,
So, they zilch the form en masse.

Costy Graves and Hair McCall
Are Maritimers sleek,
Hugh and Butch are Choir Boys,
They do their stuff each week.

Scotty and Brig are all that's left,
So we'll use this verse to say,
We wish you all a Xmas fine,
And a happy holiday.

SWEENEY—Duff is the trustworthy fisherman from Lunenburg. His hobby is drawing boats in the poetry class.

SILMSER—Dave loves arguing at football crease. Apart from that he is quite good on Fifth Team, and is a valuable addition to our class.

SKELTON—Jeff. If there is a girl around he knows her, and he amuses G. dormitory in the evening by his thrilling tales.

CLEVELAND—Zeke, who can't get his mind off aircraft, or on his studies, spends most of his time arguing with Maxwell on the possibility of jet propulsion.

WEBSTER—It is Carl's first year, and he came all the way from Jamaica. He is a very successful football player.

WILLIAMS—Bob, a very quiet and studious member of the class, spends his time trying to get Allan to show him how to do his prep.

SOME OF THE DEBATES

The Society held its first session on September the 18th.

HAT NIGHT

The motion before the House on Sept. 25th was: "That this Society is of the opinion that Churchill is the greatest statesman in history."

Speakers on the affirmative side were: Setlakwe, Boyd, Hallward, Cleveland, Janner. On the negative: Jarrett, Cochrane, Hooper, Fraser and Fuller.

The motion was carried.

"That a wartime Statesman is of more use to his country than a peace time Statesman" was the motion on Oct. 2nd. It was lost.

"That Stalin's attitude is justifiable" was the motion on Oct. 17th. It was carried.

The motion before the House on November 6th was: "That the United Nations will guarantee the independence of the smaller nations." It was carried.

"That it would be to Turkey's advantage to join the Allies now" was the motion on November 20th. The result was a draw.

The motion before the House on November 26th was: "That this Society is of the opinion that Freedom of the Air after the war is desirable."

CLEVELAND. With convincing earnestness and a confidence and poise which has been steadily increasing since his first speech, Cleveland opened for the affirmative. He considered Freedom of the Air the greatest post war problem. "England has the bases and jumping off points, the United States the planes; a compromise between the two countries is essential. Taking it for granted that the air over a country belongs to that country, other countries should be given landing and fuelling facilities and be permitted to rest en route. A Canadian plane going to Nassau should be allowed two stops, for example, but otherwise no American passengers should be taken on between New York and Nassau to avoid competition and annoyance, and vice versa for a United States plane going to Alaska," he said.

COCHRANE. Another most promising new member, possesses a very facile tongue and a constant flow of argument. He is serenely happy when allowed to speak on a "point of information" or "objection". He contended that "were there Freedom of the Air, vast districts would be opened to all countries great and small, with the small on an equal footing as regards possession of the air and its possibilities. This would, inevitably, lead to war, as there never can be such a thing as lasting peace as long as you have two ambitious people in the world, or two people who do not like each other". His solution for the Air problem was that England should be invested with power and take the place of the League of Nations in Geneva and from there direct Air Control. He chose England because he considered her better situated for that purpose than either the United States or Russia.

MUSSELLS. Another outstanding new member, whose volubility has toned down to reasonable proportions since the beginning of the term with most satisfactory results as his reasoning has gained in maturity and carries conviction. This speech was marked by an earnest desire to show the desirability of friendly relationship between countries. He maintained that this could be realized through Freedom of the Air, by getting countries to visit each other and know each other better: presumably they would become friendly, as is the case between Canada and the United States; whereas ignorance of another country causes distrust. This friendship would fit in very nicely with the post-war plans of the United Nations, and important material, or some important drug could be exported quickly and, without doubt, an appreciation would be shown by the receiving country, to the mutual advantage of both countries.

JARRETT. The President, speaking in his usual commanding and persuasive manner, declared that ignorance is one of the chief factors in causing a war. Travelling by air would eliminate this and facilitate the getting acquainted with other countries; finding out what countries are run well, and judging the country that is best run in order to take it as a model. He maintained that a certain speed and a certain altitude must be agreed on beforehand. He commended to the House General Smuts' idea of regional divisions, and responsibility for each region.

HOOPER. The winner of the Society's Medal last year expressed surprise that Mr. Cochrane had turned down free enterprise, and indulged in some cutting remarks about Republicans. He argued that an International Court of Justice should preside over and clearly define Freedom of the Air. "Could America have planes flying over Canada at any time and at any place?" he queried, and he maintained that America should supply the main bulk of travel on the Western Continent, and added that Freedom of the Seas had been admirably sustained by England in the past.

SETLAKWE I. Another new member, he is a convincing speaker who has gained in fluency since his opening speech. He drew a parallel between Freedom of the Seas today and Freedom of the Air tomorrow. He considered the motion unworkable, and stated that any two countries landing on each other's fields would cause strife, although he cited Portugal as a country where all — even warring countries — met in tolerable amity. Refuting some previous speaker's statement, he asserted that if definite air-lines were followed, travelling would be too stereotyped and no adequate idea of a country could be obtained.

JANNER. A veteran and stalwart member of the Society, has recently assumed the predilection of speaking last and indulging in tirades against some unwary speaker. He does not consider the motion desirable, and added that even Freedom of the Air was almost a myth because of territorial waters and harbour dues. He drew a vivid pen picture of aerial confusion: a tremendous network of Company planes, private planes and others criss-crossing in the blue. He insisted that definite lines were imperative and, furthermore that an International Conference should make everyone register his plane and destination, otherwise intensive smuggling would be prevalent.

The Science Club

The Club, beginning operations this year with an unusually large enrolment coupled with a certain limitation in the matter of equipment, found it impossible to cater to individual scientific interests.

With this in view, the Club, on the opening night in September, elected to office an executive who, through past experience and native talent, were able to plan and skilfully execute interesting demonstrations in practical physics and chemistry.

Hence an expression of gratitude is due our executive, consisting of Taylor I, Bisson, and Black, who, assisted by Satterthwaite II, devoted much spare time to arranging apparatus and preparing experiments for our weekly Saturday night meetings.

The Music Club

In September the Music Club was founded with a small number of enthusiastic members. One evening was devoted to songs, and piano and violin solos by members of the Club, and it is hoped to arrange several more such evenings next term. "Charter" members were fortunate enough to secure season tickets for the Sherbrooke Concert Serie, and have already enjoyed hearing the Argentine pianist Marisa Regules. Next term we look forward to hearing Yehudi Menuhin and Nino Martini.

However an evening's programme generally consists of a short paper on a composer suggested by each member in turn, followed by the playing of recordings of some of his best known works. We have been most fortunate in being able to borrow a number of excellent recordings, and hope that the School will own a first rate reproduction unit in the not too distant future.

The Aeroplane Club

MODEL MATTERS

This is the second year that the Aeroplane Club has been open, and it is far more active than it was last year. Already several models have been built, all different designs, ranging from 18 inches to six foot wing span. The most interesting was built by Allan Mitchell, who constructed the only U control model which has so far flown. He has put skis on the plane, and it draws a large crowd every afternoon when it goes buzzing round the Prep field. From experience gained from a Grumman 'Wildcat' built by our president, Doug Foss, we have learned what not to do when taking a U control off the ground.

If ever you should visit our club, you will see an imposing array of planes and motors, as nearly all of our planes are gas models. You would see Levitt's plywood masterpiece, Dickens' and Brown's small models, and Williams' strongly constructed plane, which has a wing span of 48 inches. Also standing around is McCall's glider which has had great success.

This year we have ten members, who are all pioneering with new designs, and who wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

June Closing

Sherbrooke Record—

Two new records, one in the half-mile, and the other in the cricket ball throw, were set up at the annual field day of Bishop's College School which took place yesterday. H. D. Sheppard, of Sorel, smashed the record of 308 set up by Wilson in 1934 when he heaved the cricket ball 317 feet 9½ inches and the 2 minute, 16 9-10 second half mile run of J. Hancock, London, Eng., just edged over the 2 minute, 17 second record set up by W. L. Rowe in 1941.

Starring throughout the field day, with an amazing total of four cups, four ribbons and a couple of medals, was H. D. Sheppard, of Sorel, who climaxed his success by winning the Smith Cup and Fortune Medal for being the senior champion. Other championship cups won were the Richardson Cup (Prep) won by D. Stearns of Megantic; the R.M.C. Cup (Junior) taken by R. Pitfield of Cartierville, and the Challenge Cup (Intermediate) won by J. W. Price of Quebec.

Following the field events, the students, their friends and families assembled in the School hall where the prizes were presented to them by D. L. Stearns, School Board Official, and an address of welcome was voiced by Rev. Dr. A. H. McGreer, Principal of Bishop's University. F. R. Pattison, Principal of Bishop's College School, officiated. FOOTBALL

Rugby

We stood there, shivering and wet, as Doc Struthers ruefully scraped the gumbo from his sodden moccasins and wound up, symbolically, the muddy yards-cord which had measured its final length for the year. Jubilant, and as unintelligible as ever, rose the "Bish'col'g'school!" and the 1943 season ended with a 24-0 win over Stanstead. Another good season was finished, and the cheering must have been, perhaps subconsciously, for more than the immediate victory. Once again, for the record, let us see what there was to cheer about.

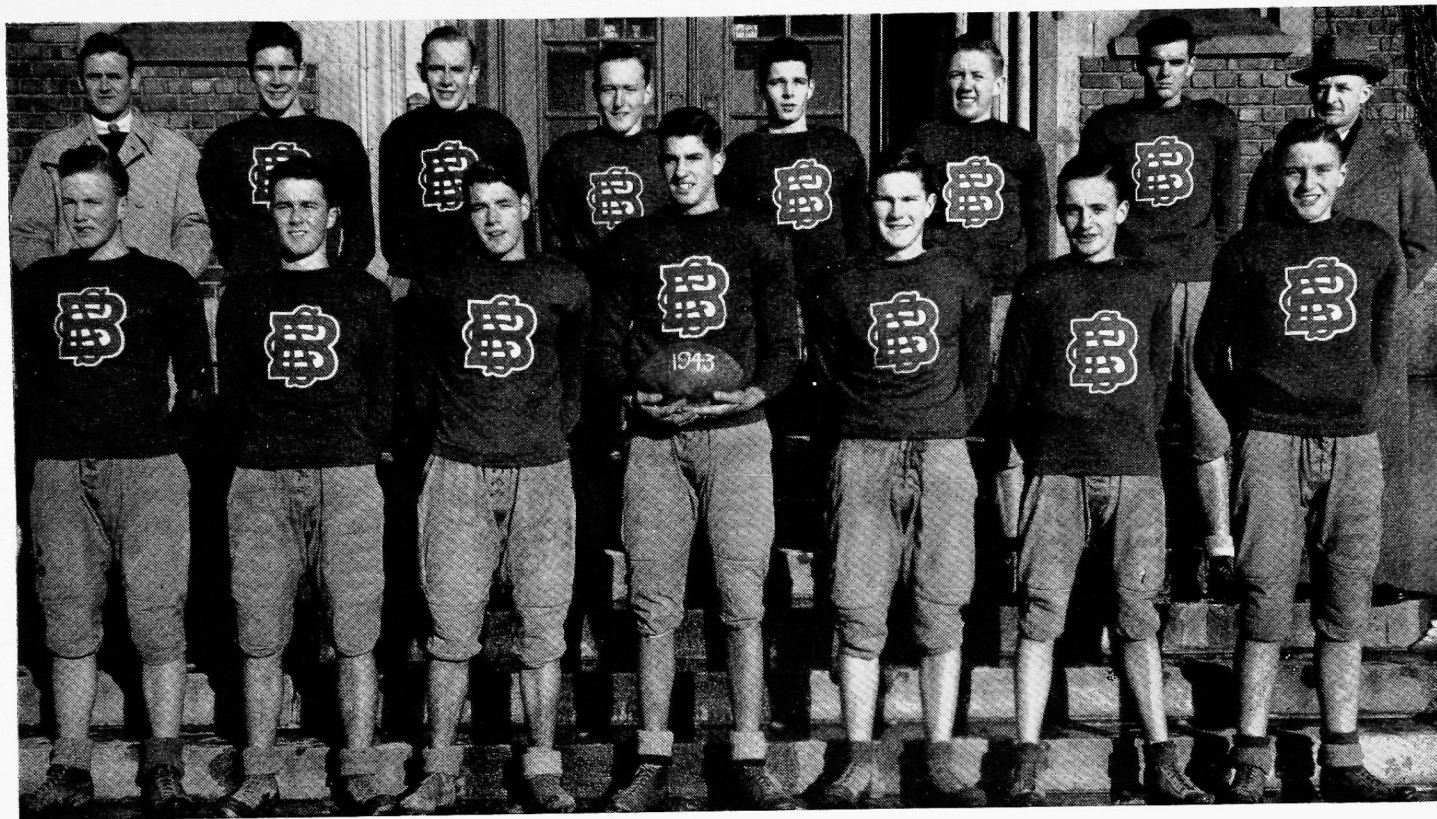

Firstly, though we lost the crucial game and the Shirley Russell Cup to a very good L.C.C. team, no other school we played could claim even a moral victory over B.C.S. on wet or dry field.

Our playing record, though not quite as spotless as last year's perfect one, was clean, and yet the team played for keeps.

Thirdly, the squad kept in fine condition, and were, much as the 1942 team, generally stronger towards the end of the game.

Team play was not, in some respects, as conspicuous an asset this season as were two great stars who sprang into prominence in our very first game. On the ends last year Bill Price and Johnny Tyler co-operated beautifully, but, apart from forward pass plays, seldom took a major part in the attack. With the change to backfield spots this season, their true value appeared so suddenly as to be a decided, though pleasant, shock. We've watched B.C.S. backfielders for a mere fifteen years, and though the Editor could conjure up fresh memories of the middle 'twenties teams, as we can't, we feel compelled to rank the present pair with the best of the greats all through the 'thirties. If anyone can show us five better schoolboy halves than (alphabetically arranged, mind you) Dan Doheny, Oggie Glass, Curly Grant, Bill Price and Johnny Tyler, we'll expect them to name the Conachers, the Leadleys and Batstones of an earlier era and of other, larger schools.

Price was an ideal captain – it's safe to risk the superlative. Whether receiving passes which seemed impossible to touch, recovering his own fumble to gain an extra ten yards, or emerging from a pile of three tacklers, and, heedless of his own twisted ankle, to flash the famous Price grin and thus to reassure a tiny, frightened spectator, Bill's ability and his example were, to say the least, inspiring.

If ever a great captain had an unselfish, brilliant and gentlemanly running-mate, Price had one in Tyler. Opposing teams pointed to stop him,—but they didn't. Resourceful, tireless, fast, capable, Johnnie gave a full season's display of superb rugby with a genuine modesty that never failed to astonish even those who have known him for years; they testified to that. These two overshadowed some sterling passing by Hodgson and his strike-throwing understudy, Hallward; they made us take for granted a pair of fine receivers and sound downfield tacklers in McBoyle and Boright, as well as Dobell's steady, reliable ball handling; a line that held, at times, like a rock; and eager, dependable subs who went all out to relieve the pressure. Much as we admire a balanced team and its co-operative smoothness, this year's two-star feature has been very easy to take.

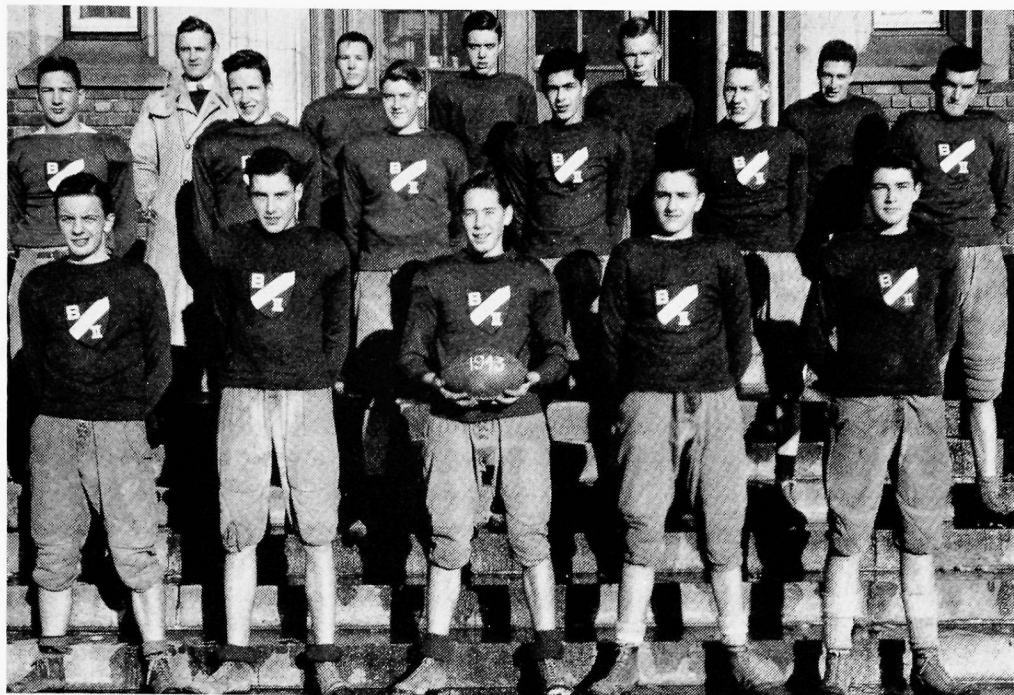

Ken Jackson, old time rival of B.C.S. and youthful veteran of the present war, took over the coaching duties, so ably handled last season by Russell "Joe" Blinco. We consider Kenny's success a tribute to both coaches: Joe's work had taught the hold-overs from his team that the game, more than the mentor, was the important thing, and Ken's principle was much the same, though his game technique was somewhat different. Like his predecessor, Ken was quiet, cool, patient, straightforward and thorough. We heard no comparisons of their respective abilities; we offer none, because they are quite unnecessary. Suffice it to say, that, as the whoop of victory trailed away in the November drizzle, much of the rickety-rackety-roo expressed a schoolboy's approval of a fine team, a fine coach, and a fine tradition well maintained.

September 29th— B.C.S. vs. S.H.S. EXHIBITION GAME. LOST 2-1.

In our first game we lost to a better conditioned Sherbrooke team, 2-1. It was a poorly played game, with B.C.S. taking the lead in the second quarter when Tyler batted a fumble across the S.H.S. touchline for a point. Then during the course of the game Sherbrooke picked up two rouges. The game was rugged, marked by many fumbles, and in the last five minutes B.C.S. marched fifty yards only to be stopped by the end of the game. It was a poor start, but luckily an exhibition game, and as things turned out, we later beat them twice in regular games.

October 9th— B.C.S. vs. S.H.S. WON 8-6.

In the closest and most exciting game of the year, B.C.S. defeated Sherbrooke on a wet field, 8-6. The first half was scoreless, and the most outstanding feature of it was the marvellous kicking of Price, who on several occasions booted sixty yard punts. The second half was scarcely a minute old when S.H.S. intercepted a pass and ran it thirty yards for a touchdown. The convert failed however. Shortly afterwards they kicked a rouge making the score 6-0. Towards the end of the third quarter, Bishop's got organized and almost scored after three successive completed passes, but S.H.S. held and the ball exchanged hands. In the last quarter we were not to be denied, and Tyler went over for a touchdown on a wide buck. The convert was no good. After keeping up the pressure, in the last minute of play, Price booted a placement for a field goal, worth three points, making an exciting end to the game.

October 11th— B.C.S. vs. OLD BOYS. LOST 6-5.

One of the better teams of Old Boys in some years defeated the School 6-5, although we had tough luck in not winning. The Old Boys were: Evans, captain, Sheppard, Finley, Lorimer, Day, Pitfield, Peck, Macfarlane, Les and Jack Davis, McMaster and Brown. The Old Boys, after just preventing a School score, marched up the field after once losing the ball, and picked up five points on a buck by Evans. Later a rouge was added for one point. Then after some quick plays, Dobell bucked for a touchdown, making the score 6-5. The convert was unsuccessful and so were the rest of the School's efforts to garner additional points. Probably the main reason why the School lost was that Price and Tyler, the two best players, were only allowed to play a quarter of the game, for fear of further aggravating their injuries.

October 16th— B.C.S. vs. L.C.C. LOST 2-0.

In a rather slow game, L.C.C. edged us out 2-0, a game reminiscent of last year's, which we won 1-0. Largely dominated by good kicking, numerous bucks and two long runs, one for L.C.C., and one by Tyler for B.C.S. The game failed to be as interesting as several others this year. L.C.C. took the lead in the first quarter on a kick over the deadline and added another in the last on a rouge, both points being scored by Muir. B.C.S. enjoyed its most successful gains during the first quarter, but as soon as the ball got near scoring territory L.C.C. held.

October 20th—

S.H.S. AT B.C.S. WON 19-7.

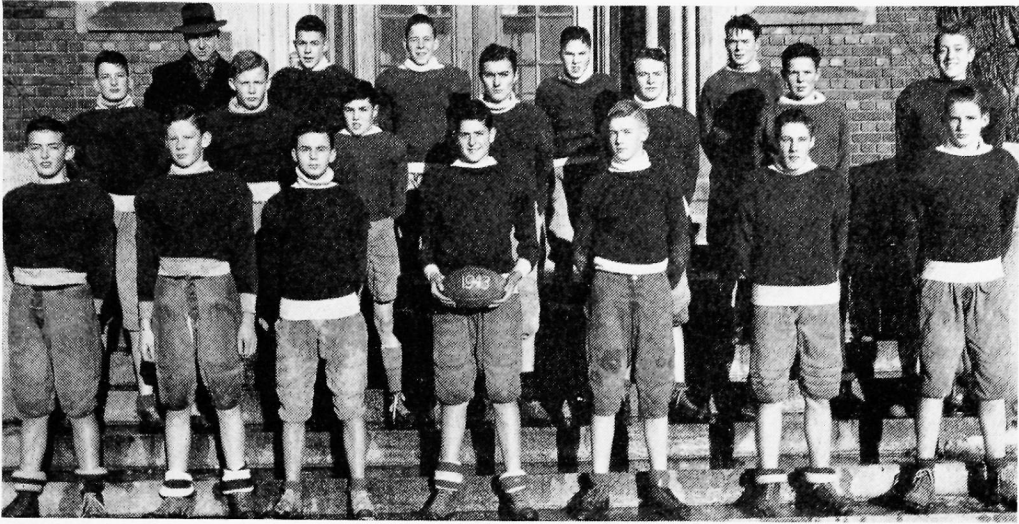

In the home game with Sherbrooke, the School team proved too powerful for the High School, and triumphantly walked off the field on the long end of a 19-7 count.

Sherbrooke kicked off, and after Price had run about 10 yards he threw a lateral to Dobell, who ran another 30. After a series of first downs, in which Sherbrooke did not touch the ball once, Tyler plunged for a touchdown, after he, Dobell and Price had also made long gains. Then Price booted the convert from placement.

Shortly after this, Tyler intercepted a Sherbrooke pass on their 30 yard line, and ran unmolested for a second touchdown, and Price again converted, making the score 12-0.

In the last play of the second quarter, Budning of Sherbrooke got a touchdown from the 1 yard line, and converted it himself, the half ending 12-6.

The School scored no points in the third quarter, while Budning got a rouge for Sherbrooke. However in the fourth and last quarter, after marching down the field from our 25 yard line, Price ran around the right end standing up, for our third touchdown, and again converted.

FOURTH TEAM 1943

Front Row: SWEENEY, BLACK, (Captain), PRICE, WHITE, WILLIAMS, WEBSTER
 Middle Row: STERN I, HOWARD, MAXWELL, COX, BIARD, McCALL, WALLS

A few plays later he attempted a field goal from the 35 yard line, but, although high enough, it was slightly crooked and went for one point, making the score B.C.S. 19, S.H.S. 7; and so the game ended.

The team played exceptionally well, with the backfield and the interference clicking as they never had before.

October 23rd— B.C.S. vs. STANSTEAD. WON 16-8.

For the first time in three years B.C.S. vanquished Stanstead College at Stanstead. It was cold and drizzling, making the field muddy, but it did not make much difference to either team, as there were several long runs.

The game started with Bishop's driving down the field for a touchdown, scored by Tyler, and being unconverted. Shortly afterwards, Price went over standing up, and this time Price kicked the convert from the placement, and so the score was 11-0.

During the second quarter we threatened often but due to overconfidence and better line-play by Stanstead, we failed to score. During the third quarter Tyler ran back a kick sixty yards to the Stanstead five yard line, from where Dobell bucked for our third and last touchdown. Shortly after this Price left the field due to injuries, and the team suffered greatly the loss of inspiration and generalship that he consistently showed throughout the year. At this stage, with B.C.S. having a makeshift backfield, Stanstead got two rouges and a converted touchdown from a long forward pass. During the last period the ball was always in the Stanstead half of the field but it never crossed the goal line. It was in this game more than any other that Tyler starred.

October 30th— B.C.S. vs. ASHBURY. WON 27-0.

In our annual game against Ashbury in Montreal we again defeated them, this time by the score of 27-0. The score roughly indicates the game, although neither team capitalized its scoring opportunities, especially Ashbury. Throughout the game there was a strong wind, which made a great difference to the kicking.

With the wind behind us, we garnered 12 points during the first quarter on a buck by Tyler which was good for a touchdown, on a reverse by Price which completely fooled Ashbury, and let him romp twenty-five yards untouched. Price converted his own touchdown, and the other point came in a sixty yard punt by Price over the dead-line. During the second quarter we threatened often but the only score came on a field goal from placement against the wind, by Price, the first half ending 15-0.

In the third period, Ashbury threatened on our five yard line, but fumbled, and shortly afterwards Price kicked another rouge. During the last quarter Wallace went through the centre of the line for an unconverted touchdown. Ashbury kicked off, and after an exchange of kicks B.C.S. had the ball on its one yard line, and from there it marched the length of the field for Hodgson's touchdown, which Price converted, and so the game ended, 27-0. It was in this game more than any other that Price really starred.

November 6th— B.C.S. vs. STANSTEAD. WON 25-0.

This game, the last of the season, was won easily by B.C.S. by the score of 25-0. The game was played during a steady drizzle which made forward passing impossible, but this did not stop B.C.S. from tearing through the Stanstead line time after time. B.C.S. constantly had the ball in Stanstead territory during the first quarter, but the best they could do was to score one point on a kick by Price.

In the second quarter Johnny Tyler scored a beautiful touchdown for B.C.S. on a 30 yard end run which made the score 6-0. Price made the convert, and later on kicked for a rouge and the first half ended with the score 8-0 in favour of B.C.S.

In the second half the powerful B.C.S. backfield really started to roll. In all, three touchdowns were scored, one each by McBoyle, Price and Dobell. Each time Bishop's marched down the field to obtain their points, completely dominating the play. Never before in this season had the bucks succeeded so well, as the Stanstead line was ripped apart. Particularly outstanding was the playing of Tyler, who was already a touchdown threat however he got possession of the ball. Sandwiched in between the touchdowns was a rouge for Price and also a convert, kicked by Price after his touchdown.

So the game ended 25-0 in favour of B.C.S., and so the season ended. Particularly outstanding and often apparent was the coaching of Ken Jackson, who did a grand job and was very popular with the team.

SECOND CREASE FOOTBALL NOTES

Blessed by a beautiful autumn in which there was scarcely a cancelled crease since our beginning in mid-September, the members of Second Crease enjoyed a most interesting and happy season.

For the first week we concentrated almost entirely on muscle-hardening and general conditioning through divers twists, stretches and acrobatic contortions. This led us into the practising of ball handling and passing techniques, and the boys were in apparently fine condition and greatly thrilled when the first uniform practice was called.

Now came the sad but necessary task of separating the Under Sixteen from the "Ancients". The latter contained many a star of yester-year in the persons of such ones as Johnson, Smith, Loggie, etc., and they still displayed sufficient activity in their ageing limbs to provide splendid scrimmage opposition in the training of the Under Sixteen squad, which was now taking definite form.

With P.T. still an important part of our daily programme, but leaning more now to drill and polish, the next week was to show that we had in Graham, Janner, MacKenzie and Fraser, a backfield which was now combining its former experience into the shaping of a well oiled machine. They were supported by a line which already was showing dash, determination and courage, and which responded excellently to instruction in blocking and tackling.

We decided now it was time to put our progress to the acid test, and we engaged the highly rated Second Team in a short game. As can be understood, our enthusiasm knew no bounds when we emerged victorious. The next game, however, saw the Second Team really organized and, in a regular game, we were not successful in a second bid for victory.

Perhaps the greatest tribute paid to our team all the year was the choosing of our whole half line, quarter, outsides and two other linemen to bolster the Second Team against L.C.C. That same afternoon, October 16, we suffered an un-expected set-back by Lennoxville High School First Team, whose weight and size we neither anticipated nor could match. In this game we showed a definite weakness in defence against forward passes and the boys from the village were quick to utilise their advantage in reach to gain a 17-0 victory.

With the benefit of our first game's experience to help us, we carried on with further conditioning, blocking, tackling and scrimmaging against the ever willing Ancients and considered ourselves in rare fettle for our important game vs Stanstead on Oct. 27 at Stanstead. Both teams were in mid-season form, and a cleaner, harder fought game could scarcely be imagined. We had the misfortune to lose the services of our star half-back, Janner, on the first play of the game, and this was to be Stanstead's margin of victory, but the whole game was just as keen as the score would indicate, Stanstead 13, B.C.S. 12. We returned home in good spirits, feeling that our score was no disgrace to any team, and began to prepare for our next game vs Lennoxville Under Sixteens. For this game we welcomed back Pitfield (who had missed the Stanstead game due to a slight lip injury) into our line-up, and with the line now intact we drove through to a convincing 11-0 victory.

On Wednesday, Nov. 3, Stanstead returned, and in another closely fought engagement were successful in defeating us 11-6, but we all felt that this was another of those games which does so much to encourage the sport.

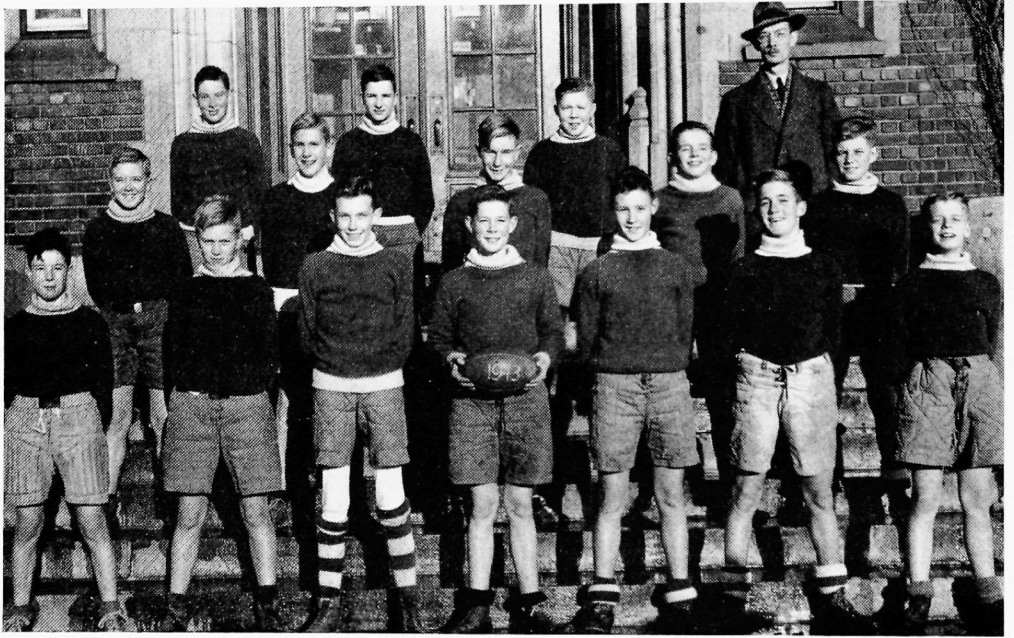

We wound up our season in a sea of mud on Nov. 6, against Sherbrooke Under Sixteens. The game was bogged down to a mere crawl, and the ball would "plop" in the mud without a bounce, but the B.C.S. boys proved the better muckers, and slogged through the mire to the tune of 26-0.

It is difficult to pick stars in a team where size and ability are so evenly spread. A talent scout might have been attracted by the kicking and plunging of Mackenzie, the broken field running of Graham, the sure catches of Fraser, the master-minding of Davis, or the tackling of Satterthwaite II. However, this observer picks the round-the-end gains of Ford as one of the season's highlights. This may have been made possible by the excellent interference provided by Allan, but it netted Jock at least one touchdown in every game except one. Thus the famous No. 13 play will ever have an exalted place in the records of the Eastern Townships. The following were awarded colours: Graham (Capt); Janner, Fraser, Mackenzie, Day, Taylor II, Evans, Boyd, Pitfield, Satterthwaite II, Graves, Allan, Ford.

The Under Sixteen team would like to express its appreciation of the thorough and enthusiastic coaching of Mr. Lowndes, without whose efforts we could not have had nearly so successful a season.

FIFTH TEAM NOTES

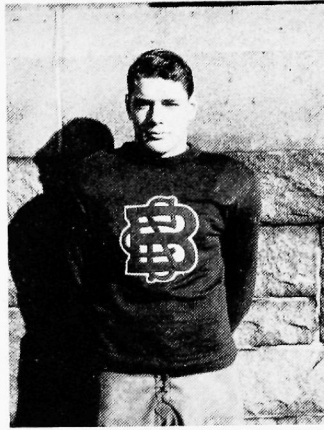

This year the Fifth Team was very fortunate in being able to play as many games as it did; it played Sherbrooke twice, and Lennoxville once. The first game was with Sherbrooke, ending with no score for either team. It was a tough game and everybody played well, Cox showing himself to be of great help on the line with his excellent tackling and blocking; Dickins gaining many yards with his endruns, and Price quarterbacking the whole game very successfully. The other two games were not so successful as we lost both, but we hope next year they will be able to win all their games. The team wants to express its sincere appreciation to Mr. Patriquin for his able coaching.

The team is as follows: Black, Williams, White, Dickins, Price II, Maxwell, Cox, Biard, McCall, Howard, Sweeny, Silmsen. Subs: Seely, Walls, Bronfman, Stern I, Mitchell II.

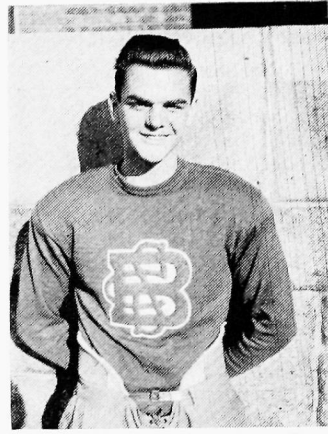

T. H. M.

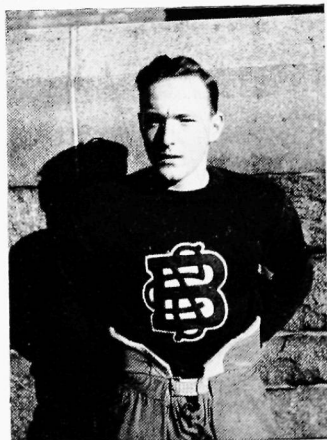

Price—captain and flying wing. In his third year on the team, Bill combined all round playing ability with a fine team spirit. A spearhead of the offensive, and an excellent kicker, he booted as many as seven points in a single game. As an end runner he gained yards consistently and his one-handed pass grabbing was something to see. In tertiary position on the defensive he was always effective in pass interception, and used a jarring tackle with devastating effect. For about everything that stamps an athlete and a gentleman as outstanding, Bill gets our nomination for Bishop's Hall of Fame.

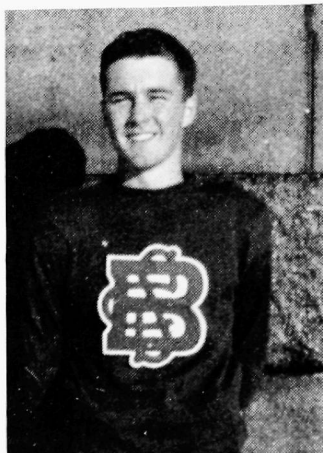

Tyler—half. Second year on the team. Johnnie is one of the most consistent ground gainers the School has had for years, while in spotting a play and stopping it, we have seen few equals. He started the season at quarter, but was soon moved in as a running half, a move that practically made the team. Effective as he was on the gallop and in the tackle, he could, as occasion demanded, punt and pass with accuracy and consistence.

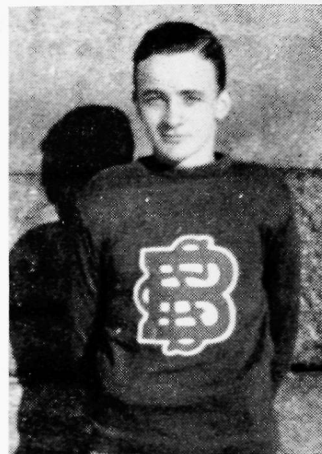

Aird—inside. Second year. Pete turned in another season of hard, sound football. He steadied the line defensively, while as a ball-carrier and a substitute passer, he performed a man sized job. A prospective naval man, Pete's experience on and in the waters of 1943 rugby fields should stand him in good stead.

Sifton—middle. Second year. John shifted from snap to middle wing this year, where his fighting spirit kept him always in the game. His eagerness, though it occasionally took him offside, was always evident.

Dobell—half. Another first year backfielder. Tony loved the heavy going, whether as a ball-carrier, secondary tackler, or as running interference, and invariably made his presence felt. While not spectacular, his steady, efficient play was always solidly helpful.

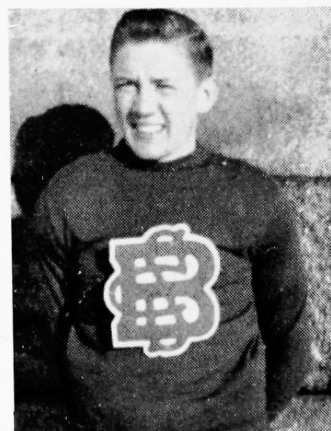

Wallace—quarter. First year. Mike took over the quarterback spot from Tyler after the first game and, making the best use of his talented backfield, proved himself to be a hard-working, capable field general.

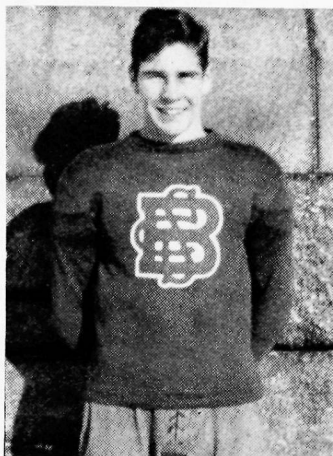

Hodgson—half. In his first year as a regular, Tom was the centre of a most effective passing attack. Gifted with a fine arm and a sharp-shooter's eye, he fed his catching backs and ends with a variety of flat, accurate passes. He also took a good many plunges through the line, and was a capable defensive back.

McBoyle—outside. First year colours. Curly's position on the team was not assured because of an early injury, but once he got in the game, his tackling, running and pass receiving made him a fixture at once. His usefulness was particularly noted on end-around plays.

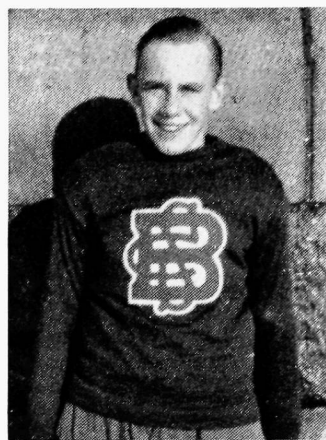

Boright — outside. First year man, Boright could, and did tackle very hard. In addition, he took Hodgson's passes for gains of many yards, and effectively boxed in his opposing end when we were on the defensive.

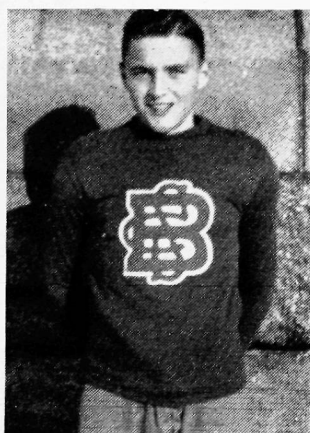

Neill—middle. First year on the team. Chuck possessed an ability to buck the line and good defensive skill. As a great team player, his forte was steady, hard work, rather than the spectacular.

Mackay—inside. Unfortunately injuries deprived the team of Jamie's strong defensive play in midseason. Till his withdrawal, he was a sterling lineman, who gave the snap most adequate support and whose work in kick formation noticeably stiffened the centre.

Stevenson—snap. First year man, up from third team of 1942, Steve's ability to get the ball out quickly and cleanly gained him his berth at centre. As of other years, he worked well in the mud as well as with a dry ball, and on the defensive, effectively broke up many forward pass plays.

Hallward—utility man. In his first year on the team the Comet received an "extra" colour for his remarkable versatility. He was able to fill in any backfield position, was a better than average passer, and only lack of speed kept him from gaining a regular place.

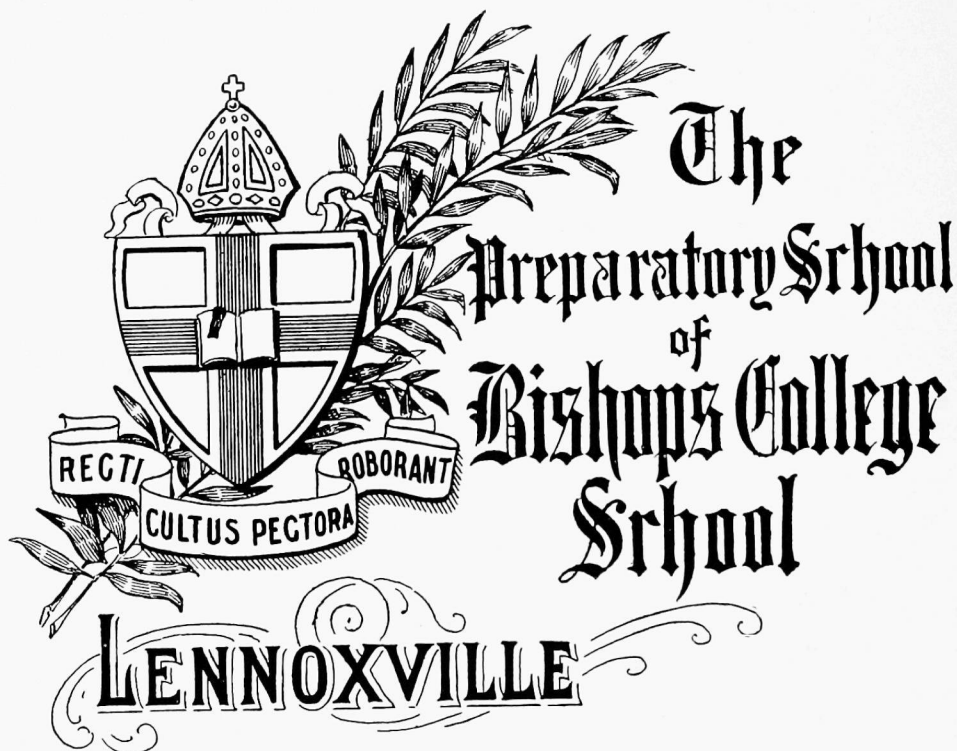

SUBS. Arnold II, Sewell, Best, Satterthwaite, Levitt, Cadenhead and Stoker. One factor in the success of this year's team was the dependability of the reserve material. They were used liberally, and there was certainly no noticeable let-down when they went on singly or in a body, as was often the case. As opposition in practice, they kept the firsts on their toes, really working to hold them.

NEW BOYS

This year we are glad to welcome to the Prep fifteen new boys: Ashworth, Badger, Baird, Calder II, Campbell, Evans II, Gilmour, Grier, Martin III, McCulloch, Neil II, Parker, Setlakwe III, Sheil, Wightwick II. These boys are all very nice and we hope they enjoy their stay here. We also wish to welcome Mr. E. R. Payzant, B.A., who has come in the place of Mr. Glauser, who is now on the staff of the University of Manitoba. Mr. Payzant is a graduate of Acadia University and, before coming here, was principal of a school in Nova Scotia. We hope Mr. Payzant is having an enjoyable time here.

J. E. LAWRENCE.

SOCCER

This year the Prep had a very good soccer team and kept up its good record of not having been beaten since 1935. At first we thought we were going to have a poor team, but under the excellent coaching of Mr. Farthing and Mr. Page it turned out to be one of the best the Prep has had. The practices were sometimes pretty poor but were generally very good.

We played the Upper three times. The first game they beat us 1-0, but they were having a hard time. In the next game we turned the tables and beat them 3-0.

We played L.C.C. on Friday afternoon, Oct. 22nd, on their own grounds. The game was fairly easy for us in the first half, but in the second they improved so much we were unable to score again, making the final score 2-0. Our first goal was scored by McCulloch on a pass from Lawrence II, and the second by Ashworth after some good work by MacDougall.

Next morning we played Selwyn House on the L.C.C. grounds. They gave us a hard battle in the first half, but in the second we managed to pull ourselves together and beat them three to nothing. In this game Stewart-Smith I scored two goals, one on a penalty kick and the other on an assist from McCulloch. The third goal was scored by Van Millingen on an assist from MacDougall.

When the team got back everyone was pleased, and still more so when we learned a few days later that we were to play Stanstead College the following week. When the day arrived everyone was wondering what kind of a team they had. We found they had a good team considering the amount of practice they had had. We beat them 4-0.

The next week we played them again, but this time on our own grounds, and beat them 9-0. The muddy field probably helped us quite a lot, however, as we were more used to it than they were.

On the whole it was a very successful season.

C. C. BALLANTYNE.

J. M. SCHOLES.

THE SOCCER TEAM

THE BACK FIELD

COHEN. A remarkably good goalie. Although his goal was not often in danger in any of our games there was never any fear that our goalie would at any time let us down. To him and to the backs must go the credit for the fact that in four games not a goal was scored against us.

MILLING. The proverbial 'tower of strength' against which every attack of the enemy dashed itself in vain. Time after time in the Montreal games the opposing forwards broke away only to come to grief each time at the hands—and feet! of Milling (and of Gilmour).

GILMOUR. His first year on the team he improved greatly during the season and ably upheld his half of the back field work. He plays a fearless and capable game, possesses a powerful kick and should be an invaluable man on next year's team.

THE HALF BACKS

A keen and hard working half line who could always be counted on to give all they had, never shirking either offensive or defensive play. As a line they were not exceptionally fast but they made up for it fully by their unswerving determination to get there.

BALLANTYNE. A good captain and a good player. He had a quick and unerring sense in spotting 'dangerous' situations, and was then at his best, with no angelic fear of rushing in! A player fully worthy of his capacity.

LAWRENCE I. If possible to make such a comparison, the hardest working player of them all. The little Mr. Great Heart of the team.

SCHOLES II. A stout little player who usually managed to find himself in the right spot. Steady and reliable, and with a good kick at times, he played a key position with all the unobtrusive poise of a veteran.

THE FORWARD LINE

The forwards are deserving of special praise for the fine passing game they always strove to play. Certainly it was this and this alone, that enabled us to score when we did, while our opponents failed in every effort. A certain measure of skill and speed is required in a forward, but without an habitual willingness to pass, his efforts will prove useless.

Back Row: J. C. FARTHING, ESQ., I. L. McCULLOCH, J. M. SCHOLES, J. E. LAWRENCE, R. B. EVANS, A. VAN MILLINGEN, J. R. GILMOUR, W. A. PAGE, ESQ.
Front Row: D. W. ASHWORTH, D. G. LAWRENCE, C. D. MILLING, C. C. BALLANTYNE, (Capt.), P. C. COHEN
 J. R. STEWART-SMITH, H. M. MACDOUGALL

STEWART-SMITH. A thorough little soccer player and always the most skilled and finished player on the field in every game we played. A good play maker with a good understanding of the game. An invaluable inside on any line.

LAWRENCE II. When once properly in his stride he was a game and effective inside with a definite 'dash' in his play. Worked well with both the centre and his wing.

McCULLOCH. A keen and ever willing centre whose fine unselfish passing made him a real centre and was responsible for much of our success in attack. Handled the ball well for the most part and improved in his work in front of goal as the season wore on.

MACDOUGALL. Improved greatly during the season, overcoming an earlier tendency to loaf, and becoming a fast, hard working and effective outside. Played an excellent game against L.C.C.

ASHWORTH. Did well in his first year at soccer. Has speed and natural soccer ability but too often fails to get into the game. Should be a valuable player next year.

VAN MILLINGEN. A player with an excellent kick and real soccer ability, but has still to overcome a certain timidity.

EVANS. A conscientious and hard working player who improved greatly during the season. He took MacDougall's place in the Stanstead games (in MacDougall's absence) and acquitted himself nobly.

STEARNS. Had an excellent chance of making the team when he had the ill luck to break his shoulder bone, thereby rendering himself hors de combat for the rest of the season.

J.C.F.

ART AND HANDICRAFT

We were all glad when we heard that Mrs. Jones, the wife of Archdeacon Jones, was going to teach Art and Handicraft in the Prep.

We have made many nice things during the term. Mrs. Jones thought it a good idea for us to make a model farm scene for Thanksgiving, and under her able direction it was a great success. A number of the parents who visited the Art Room saw this model, as well as some of the better art work from each form.

For Hallowe'en we made masks and drew pumpkins and other Hallowe'en pictures. It was great fun and was enjoyed by all.

Other things we have made are:

Remove—portfolios, blotters, drawings of leaves and trees and designs.

Third Form—a desert scene, drawings of flowers and trees.

Both of these forms have also done some wood work.

Second and First Form—paper trucks and houses, drawings of flowers and leaves.

As you have probably seen we have been very successful in our first term of work.

THE CHOIR

This year the choir was strengthened by the addition of seven new boys, namely, McCulloch, Baird, Ashworth, Evans, Martin III, Campbell and Neil.

Under the leadership of Mr. Page the choir sang parts of Mendelssohn's "Hear My Prayer" in St. Mark's Chapel on the Sunday morning of the Thanksgiving Day week end. We are now practicing "God be in my Head", kindly donated to the choir by Mrs. Furse, which we are going to sing every Sunday in Advent.

The choir has had a very successful Michaelmas Term and we have every reason to hope it will be equally successful for the rest of the year.

THANKSGIVING WEEK END

Thanksgiving week end is one of the most exciting events of the Michaelmas Term. A few parents come up on the Saturday, but the majority come up on Sunday, in time to attend the service in St. Mark's Chapel. In the afternoon most of the boys go out to a movie or to some other amusement in Sherbrooke.

On Monday morning this year a rugby game was played between the Upper School's First Team and the Old Boys, most of whom were at the School last year. Both sides were loudly cheered by the School.

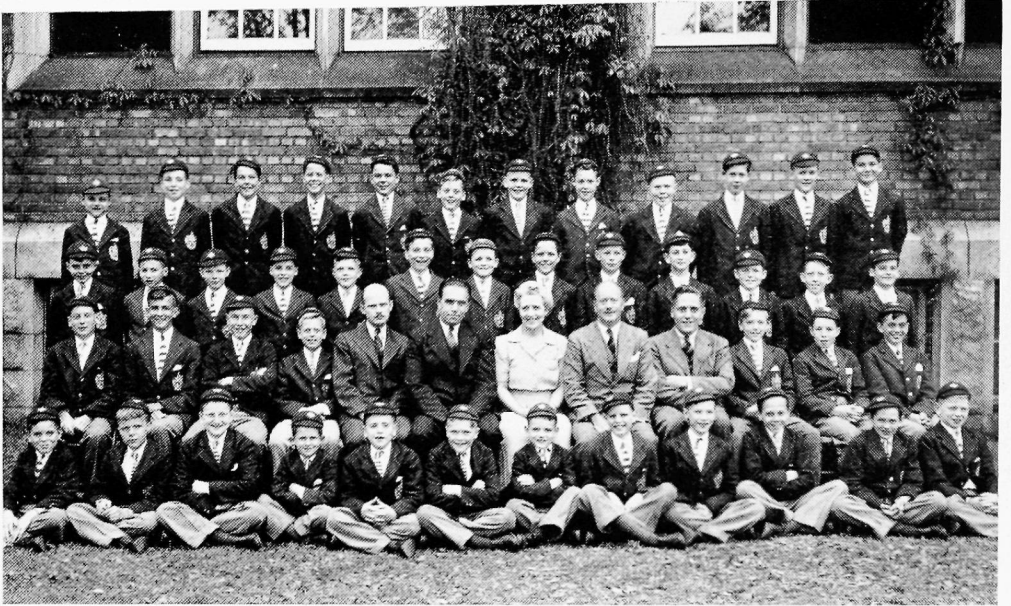

After the game all the boys and parents went to the hall for a chicken dinner which was enjoyed immensely. At two o'clock everyone went up to the gym where the prizes were awarded to the boys who had done well in their classes during the previous year. With this a most enjoyable week end was brought to a close.

HALLOWE'EN PLAYS

On Hallowe'en each dorm put on a play. The first one was impressively announced by Terry Grier. This was the Dorm II play entitled "The Haunted Castle", written and produced by R. Jekill who took the leading role which was that of an English officer. The play throughout was a great success.

THE PREPARATORY SCHOOL

The Dorm I play was "The Fall of the House of Usher", adapted from the story of Edgar Allen Poe by G. Furse. It was realistically produced with full aid of wind, thunder and lightning effects. Equally exciting was the Dorm III play, "The Air Raid", produced by A. Sheil and D. Monier-Williams.

The last play of the evening was acted by Remove Dorm. It was named "The Spanish Butler", written and produced by D. Sheard. The chief role, that of the butler, was played by Ballantyne, while the laugh of the play, Professor Ogglesworth, was taken by Ogilvie. Milling was excellent in the role of . . .

Everyone had a wonderful evening.

D. SHEARD

JARRETT'S MODEL SHIPS

One Sunday evening in October Jarrett came over from the Upper School to show us the amazing collection of model ships he has made for himself during the past two years. He has 457 in all, most of which are careful models of present day battleships, but some of which are of his own design. Among these latter is an innocent merchantman which is turned in an instant into a vessel of war, with guns appearing from the sides and an aeroplane popping from the hatch, to be catapulted into the air.

These models are so well made that the naval authorities in Trinidad asked him for the loan of 50 of his ships for instructional purposes.

It was a great treat for us all to see them and we wish to thank Jarrett again for his kindness in showing them to us.

D. SHEARD.

TRAIL WORK

Since the close of the soccer season the Prep has been occupied in clearing trails. Mr. Page chose four teams with Ballantyne, Furse, Lindsay-Hogg and Stearns as captains. The work consists mostly in cutting underbrush and in chopping stumps. A prize is to be given for the best team. Work is progressing very well. Some days, after hard work and when there is snow enough, we finish up with a snowball fight.

D. M. STEARNS

PREP TOURNAMENT GAMES

Soon after we played our last soccer match Mr. Page chose four captains, Milling, Stearns, Ballantyne and Stewart-Smith, who in turn chose four teams, the Juggernauts, Jehus, Jacobites and Jutes. Nearly all the games were closely contested and, after a hard struggle with the Juggernauts, the Jutes finally won the league.

The School was then divided into four further teams, the Army, Navy, Air Force and Commandos, with Lawrence I, Lawrence II, Cohen and McCulloch as captains. This time the Navy came out first, with the Air Force a close second.

The games were played throughout on a very muddy field which made it hard to kick the ball. The winning team in each case was given a prize of a dime apiece to each boy.

JOHN STEWART-SMITH

THE PREP RINK

About two weeks after we came back to school we began to weed the Victory garden in order to make the rink. The corn and the beets were pulled out by some boys on detention. Later, in November, we began to dig it up and flatten it out with a roller. Then the boards were put up by Emil. As the rink is to be six feet longer this year several truck loads of sand were brought by the Upper Boys in order to level it off. With more cold weather we hope soon to have some ice for skating.

R. C. McMICHAEL

MOVIES IN THE UPPER

A great change in the Sunday evenings of the Prep has been brought about this year by the showing each week of some excellent movies in the Upper School. They are held in the gym and begin about 7.00 o'clock. Usually some comedies or shorts are shown before the main film begins.

The pictures so far have all been very good. The first was an excellent film, "Under the Red Robe", with Annabella, Conrad Veidt and Raymond Massey. Then followed Frank Buck's "Bring 'em Back Alive" which was a great success as everyone was thrilled to see snakes, crocodiles, panthers and tigers fighting with each other. Perhaps the most interesting of all were two which showed the R.A.F. in action, making raids over Germany. These were "Target for Tonight" and "The Lion has Wings". Among other pictures shown was a comedy with Constance Bennett and Roland Young, entitled "Topper Takes a Trip".

The Prep is very grateful to Mr. Pattison for letting us see these movies.

CHRISTOPHER MILLING

LISTENING TO HOCKEY MATCHES

Every Saturday evening Mr. Page invites Remove down to his living room to listen to a hockey game. We all sit around the radio and listen to the second period which lasts from about 9.00 to 10.00 o'clock. When the game is late in coming on we listen to music; one night recently we heard part of the Gondoliers.

Mrs. Page is very kind in treating us to toast, milk and candies which we enjoy either during or after the game.

HARTLAND MACDOUGALL

IAN McCULLOCH

PREP MOVIES

Every Saturday night we have movies in the Prep. The films are procured from the Department of Education. Mr. Payzant shows them to us.

Three films are shown each week. They cover a variety of subjects, including travel, nature and mechanics. One picture showing "The Making of a Mask" started many boys making them. The best picture of the term, or the one that everyone enjoyed the most, was "Alice in Wonderland".

R. PATTISON

A PREP CHESS TOURNAMENT

During the 8th, 9th and 10th of November eight boys in the Prep engaged in a chess tournament which was held in the library under the direction of John Stewart-Smith.

At the end of the first day Furse, Ashworth, Porter and Stewart-Smith emerged as semi-finalists. The next day Stewart-Smith defeated Ashworth and Porter defeated Furse. This left Stewart-Smith of Remove, an experienced player, matched against Porter, of IIA, a young but capable player.

In the first game of the finals Stewart-Smith check-mated Porter in four moves, and it looked as if he had victory in his grasp, but Porter, guarding himself from every attack, proceeded to defeat Stewart-Smith in the two following games.

DAVID ASHWORTH

ROSS MARTIN

PING PONG AND CHECKERS

We were all very grateful when we heard that Mr. Ashworth was going to present the School with some ping-pong balls.

We have had three ping-pong tournaments of which every boy took part in one or more.

In the first there were twenty-two entrants who were soon reduced to three semi-finalists, McCulloch, Van Millingen and Cohen. Cohen beat Van Millingen and McCulloch then beat Cohen to win the tournament.

The second tournament included all the boys who had not entered the first. There were twenty-two in all. Stearns and Wightwick won through to the finals and in the end Stearns came out on top.

In the third tournament, with only twelve entrants, McCulloch and Cohen again got into the finals, but this time Cohen won.

We hope to have more tournaments next term.

PAUL C. COHEN

On Nov. 8th fifteen excited and anxious boys gathered in the Boys' Common Room to take part in a checkers tournament under the supervision of Douglas Sheard.

The earlier games were all quickly won and lost while Van Millingen, Sheard, Lawrence II and Gilmour proceeded to the semi-finals, both of which were long and exciting matches resulting in victories for Lawrence II and Gilmour.

The final game was a long one in which each move was thought out very carefully. In the end, however, Gilmour succeeded in getting Lawrence trapped.

THE LIBRARY

This year the Library has been doing very well under the direction of Mr. Payzant, assisted by Scholes and Ogilvie. We wish to thank the following persons who have kindly presented books to the library during the past term:

Col. and Mrs. Grier.

David Ashworth

Hartland MacDougall

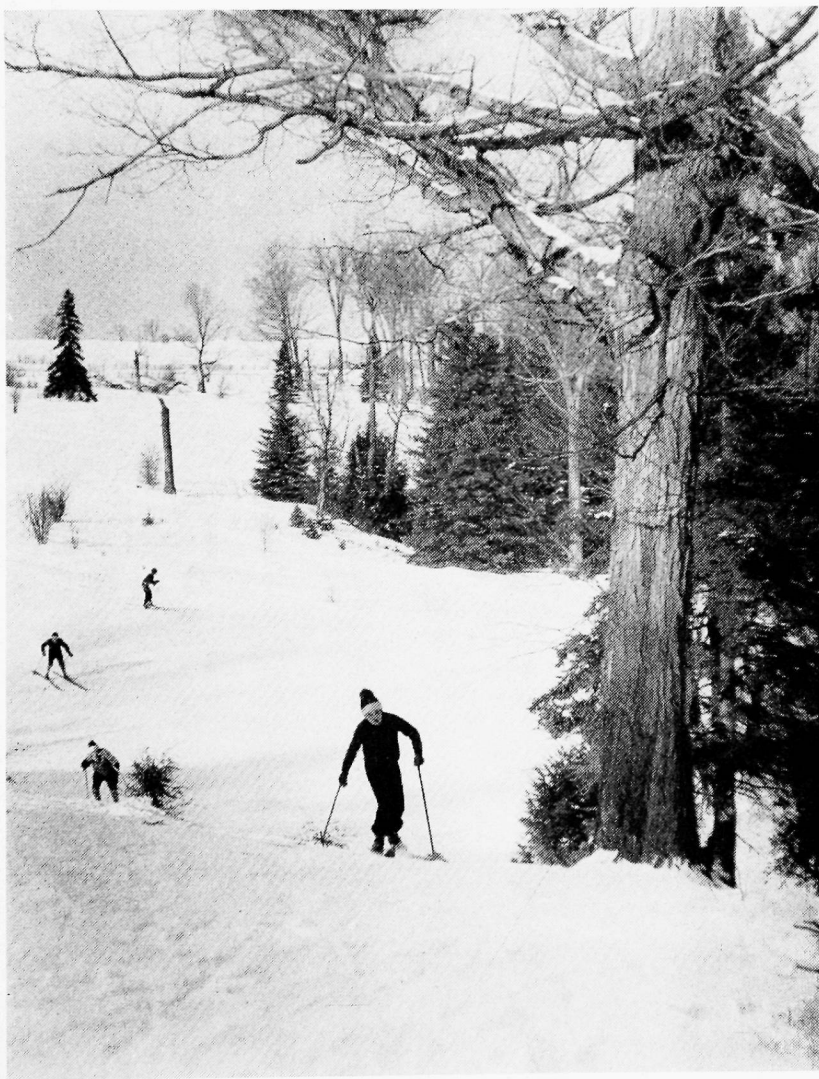

W. W. OGILVIE

GENERAL

In concluding we wish to give our sincere thanks to Miss Reyner for the gift of some excellent gramophone records of classical music. These are very much appreciated. Also we wish to send greetings to all old Prep boys serving in the Armed Forces and especially to fathers of present boys who are overseas.

By the time these notes are at the printers, the boys will be engaged in struggling with examination papers. To all we wish the best of luck, pleasant holidays, and a Happy New Year.

THE die is cast! We fight no more for peace
But ever pray the cannons soon shall cease.
We've cried to halt the rushing tide of war—
But no, for by the new concept of Law
It could not be. Till tyranny's no more
Force must meet force, before it is too late
And all our world's engulfed in tides of hate.
For evil's guile has blinded logic's sight;
Man's mind to one idea, one instinct, Might;
Man's goal a goal obtained by dint of force,
Such goals do bring but misery, remorse.
Must years of building up, collapse again
Before the primal savagery of men?
Bear up my friends, although the fight be long;
Bear up, believing Right must conquer Wrong,
Although the war brings toil and misery.
Reverse must come before true victory.
If our ideals are right, our purpose true,
Then they are all we need to see us through.
If we've the will, then ours the vict'ry is
And nought can stop our cause, for it is His.

SQD. LDR. DOMVILLE, 39, R.A.F., TAKEN BY JAPS

The Montreal Star, December 8, 1943

Sqdn-Ldr. Henry de Gaspe Domville, 39, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Domville, of the Acadia Apartments, is reported to have died in a Japanese war prisoners camp in Java, the family was notified by Air Force Headquarters, Ottawa. He was an Intelligence and Liaison officer, attached to the Royal Air Force since October, 1939.

Born in Montreal, Squadron Leader Domville attended Bishop's College School, later going to Switzerland and England to complete his studies. After returning home he went to New York, where he was connected with bond houses, but early in 1939 he returned to Europe for a visit. He was in Germany in September 1939, from where he escaped just one day before war was declared. He returned to England via Italy and France. Although a former member of the Black Watch (R.H.R.) of Canada in pre-war days, he joined the R.A.F. when asked to place his linguistic abilities at the disposal of the British War Office.

FOUGHT AT DUNKIRK

Squadron Leader Domville joined the R.A.F. on October 6, and took part in the brief fighting in Belgium and France and in the evacuation of Dunkirk. While acting as a liaison officer between the R.A.F. and the Royal Navy in the English Channel, he saw the historic fight of H.M.S. Javelin, then commanded by Lord Louis Mountbatten, which, though bombed and torpedoed, went on fighting until it reached port.

He was mentioned in dispatches and in 1941 the New Year's Honor List for his "gallant and distinguished services." The citation, signed by Sir Archibald Sinclair, referred to July 22, 1940, as the date of the signal devotion to duty for which he was cited by Air Marshal Sir Arthur L. Barratt.

In June, 1941, Domville was seriously injured in a flying accident which took four lives, but he made a rapid recovery, was quickly back on active duty and served in the thick of the fighting at Singapore and was in Java when it fell to the Japanese. In February, 1942, he sent his mother a birthday greeting cable from Batavia. That was the last word from him directly until receipt a few days ago of a post-card from a prisoners-of-war camp. This, apparently was mailed some months ago.

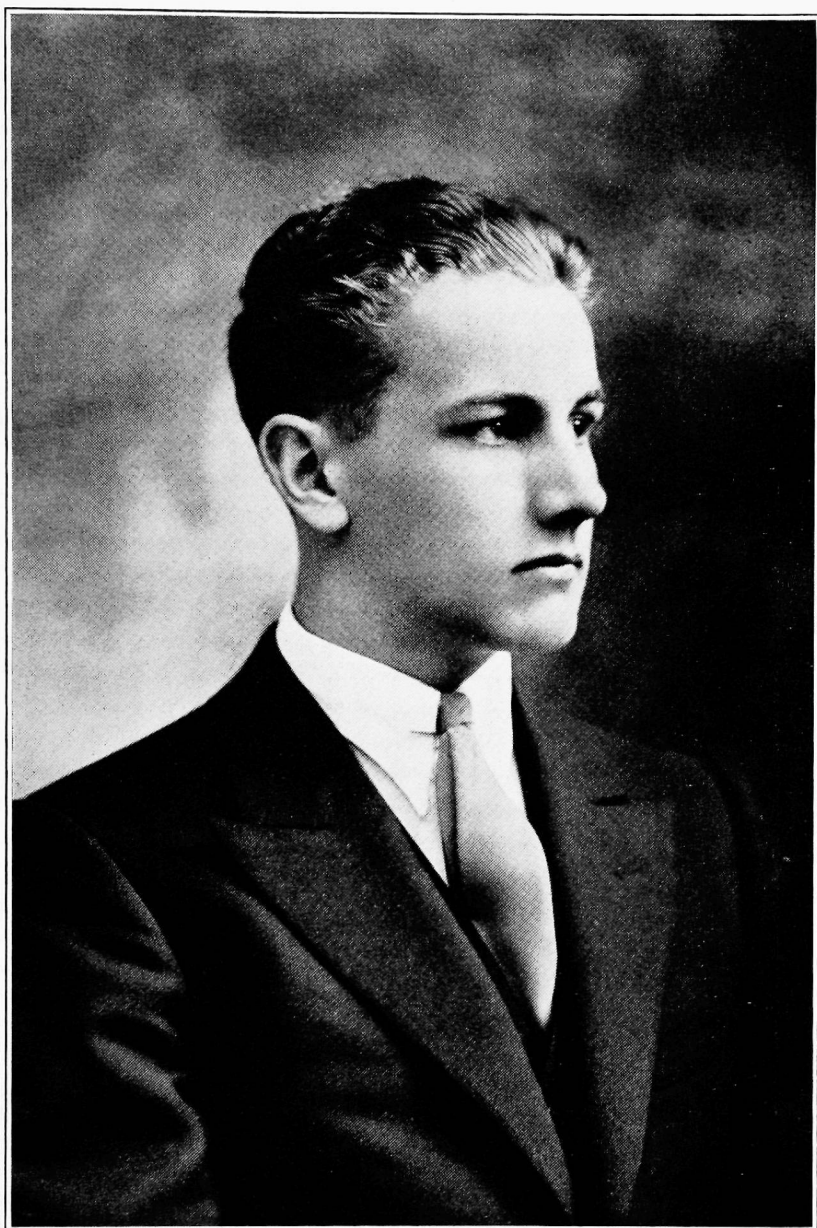

Besides his parents, Squadron Leader Domville is survived by a small son, James de Beaujeu Domville, now a student at Selwyn House School.

IF WE MUST PART . . .

If we must part, let this our parting be
Peaceful as break the clouds in sunny skies
And let it be, before all mortal eyes,
As smooth as part the swells upon the sea
That never re-unite. Thy mind be free
Of foul self-pity's taint—heed not its lies.
No redress for thy wound such conduct buys
For they are but regret for destiny.

Let us be sure in all there is intent;
Some good our fated comradeship has wrought,
And tho' our hearts are bruised, we are the fitter.
Thus may we learn to harbour with content
A bright and dear remembrance. Happy thought,
That memory may sweeten, not embitter.

D. S. N. (Old boy, written while here).

McGill Notes

DOHAN. John is relieving the transportation problem somewhat by taking us to and from college on his newly acquired motorcycle.

McLIMONT. Believe it or not, Wimpy is slowly but surely succumbing to the charms of the fairer sex.

KER. It has been reported that Tom has been burning the midnight oil much of late. (Could there be some connection between this and the recent Selective Service Regulations concerning "Christmas Graduates"?)

STAIRS. Colin has finally settled down to the fine art of studying. This is only rumour.

PECK. The new pipe rather lends itself to that carefree attitude.

BROWN. Cort seems to be enjoying the freedom which college life affords.

BAYNE. Ronnie is still carrying on the good work in the Players' Club, while he has added his talent to the Choral Society.

PALMER. Wag is now nearing graduation, and is quite willing to give us a few pointers on how it's done.

HUGESSON. After a year in French School, Hugie admits he finds it hard listening to lectures.

JENKINS. Jack can't seem to lose the habits he learned down in Mexico and Central America this summer.

COCKFIELD. Bob was last seen on the morning after the Prom, trying desperately to stay awake for his nine o'clock lecture.

LEMIEUX. The Army Course keeps Louis busy, but he found time to play on the McGill football team.

PHELPS. Eric will soon be reaping the rewards of many long years of hard work, as he is in his last year of Medicine. Remember, Eric, you reap what you have sown.

BURGESS. Well, Timmie, we wish you luck as you complete your studies, and head for the Army Medical Corps.

At a meeting of the Directors held at the beginning of the summer it was decided that it would be of great advantage to the Association to have a member maintaining close relations with the School and with the boys now attending. It was therefore decided to give Herbert L. Hall the office of Assistant Secretary with the special function of acting as liaison with the School. Herby Hall is believed to have set the record for attendance at the School, having entered in 1916 and graduated in 1927, and has been for many years a loyal member of the Association. He has been doing valuable work in maintaining the interest of Old Boys in the School by sending out Bulletins to those on Active Service and he has brought to the attention of those boys who left the School last June the desirability of joining the Association.

DACK'S SHOES
Have Joined the Colors

If you younger men can't be fitted with your favourite Dack style immediately, it is because one of our soldiers, sailors or airmen is marching out in a part of the regulation style shoes Dack's are building for the armed forces. Remember . . . the man who fights must come first!
